Neshaminy in September

As the Whistle Blows

the Redskins of Neshaminy High School will initiate an eleven-game attack against eight other Lower Bucks foes and three outstanding eastern Pennsylvania football machines. There is little doubt that the 1959 Redskins have their sights on the eighth consecutive league championship.

Tonight's battle with Bristol introduces Lyndon Sorber, new head coach of the Warriors, to area sports fans. A West Chester graduate, Lynn assisted Fred Prender and took over the reins at the start of this season.

The Warriors have always given the Redskins a good team effort as is shown by the 14-13 score in '56, 19-6 in '57, and 27-7 last year. You can be sure that Sorber's small squad of 23 players will give the Redskins all the football they will want for one evening.

Neshaminy and area football fans alike await with mixed emotions the uncovering of the 1959 edition of N.H.S. REDSKINS. Under our present coaching staff Harry Franks (1952), John Petercuskie (1954), and Jack Swartz (1955) the Redskins have brought nothing but Championships (1952-4-5-6) or Co-Championships (1953-7-8) to the school.

As was the case in previous years graduation has always hurt the Redskin squad; however, new squads bring new faces and new stars. The backfield is led by Harry Schuh and Jack Stricker, both junior returnees, John Kurtz will call the plays while Bill Riedel and Tom Rickards will give sound support. Petercuskie has always produced a solid front line for the runners as well as a tough charging defense for the opposition.

NESHAMINY football is here again! What have Franks-Petercuskie come up with in 1959? We'll all find out.....

The 1959 Redskin Defensive Line above, nicknamed the SAVAGES, will play an important role in determining the outcome of all of our games. The SAVAGES need only look back to 1956 and the part the defensive unit played in that undefeated season. Only seven touchdowns (45 points) were chalked up against Neshaminy's toughest line in the past seven years.
