As The Whistle Blows

the REDSKINS of Neshaminy step back into league action with the new Woodrow Wilson Rams of the Bristol Township School System.

Last week on this field some 7500 spectators--the largest crowd ever to witness a Lower Bucks High School football game--witnessed as good a high school football game as one will ever see. NESHAMINY did not win, but the school is proud of the splendid job turned in by our 1959 edition of the REDSKINS.

Not only did the REDSKINS score against the Red Rovers, but they gave one of the top teams in the state, the toughest contest over Easton's last fourteen wins.

Tonight for the first time on this field, football fans will be looking at two single-wing teams. Ram coach Richard Northrup brings his two-game old football team to the REDSKIN RESERVATION for a battle with a well-oiled and powerful NESHAMINY ELEVEN.

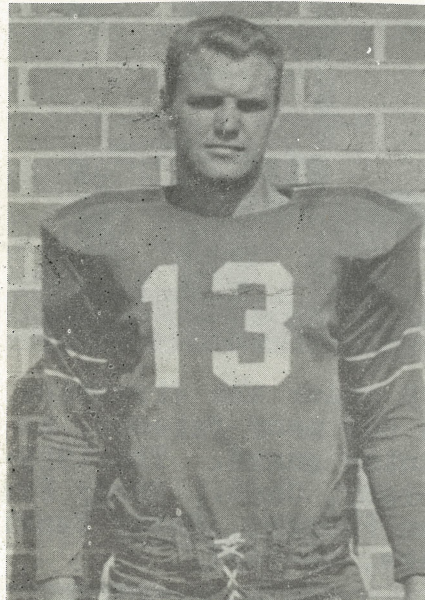

The REDSKIN mentors will be going along with the same lineup as in previous games in hopes of copping league win number 4.

The two teams you see tonight may look the same, and work the same; BUT, when the REDSKINS take the field, the Ram players will see for the first time this year, how a good single wing offense operates. At least, they should. We'll all find out.....
