As The Whistle Blows

the rampaging REDSKINS of Neshaminy line up for battle with the Aces of Lower Merion from the Suburban One Conference.

For the third time this year the REDSKINS stack up against a team outside the league. NESHAMINY panhandled a perennial Bucks-Mont league eleven, Pennridge, 37-6 and the Skins held their own with the highly-rated RED ROVERS of Easton losing 13-7.

Lower Merion brings to our playing grounds a line that averages 193 pounds (Neshaminy line averages 164 pounds) and a set of good backs in Parthemore, Raezer, Murphy, and Bottoms. The air may be full of passes from Parthemore to his able ends Ponzer and Werrin.

In its first four games, Lower Merion lost to Springfield 21-13, beat Abington 25-0 and Cheltenham 46-12, and last Saturday lost to Haverford 26-20.

The 1959 REDSKINS are anxious about this opportunity to play a Suburban One team and will be out to increase their 203 points that they have scored in their first six games this season.

Our Savages, who have allowed only four touchdowns to be scored against them, have a big assignment tonight as they face a solid and powerful Ace's forward wall.

This game doesn't count for the league title, but to Neshaminy a win over Suburban One's Lower Merion means another boost for the upsurging NESHAMINY REDSKINS of the Delaware Valley and of the entire State of Pennsylvania.

We'll all find out.....
