As The Whistle Blows

A brand new band of NESHAMINY REDSKINS will make their 1961 debut under the lights here at Neshaminy Stadium. Included in this year's edition will be 22 well-seasoned veterans which cover every position on the team.

Coach John Petercuskie begins his second year as head man of the REDSKINS (this is his 8th year on the Neshaminy coaching staff) and as in 1960 is assisted by Jack Swartz and Peter Cordelli. Coach Cuskie is optimistic as he opens the wraps on this year's squad, which has before it as tough an 11-game schedule as any of his former teams.

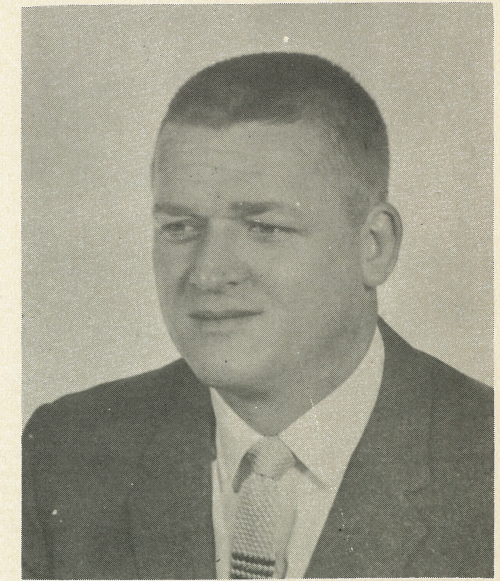

To be optimistic after losing 14 fine footballers from last year's undefeated eleven would seem to indicate that not all was lost with the graduation of such stars as big Harry Schuh, Jack Stricker, Richard Boerckel, Jack Currie and other outstanding REDSKIN performers.

What does Cuskie have to present to the Neshaminy football fans this season? Let's take a look at the different positions:

Allan Rell, a two-year man, leads a fine four-some of Bill Schemberg, Mike Wunsch and Milt Rassier; these four ends plus newcomers Wesley Harris and Jerry Dorland give the REDSKINS good strength here. Schemberg also kicks off and does the extra-point work and you may even witness Bill try his foot at some fieldgoal attempts during the 1961 season.

In John Carber, Neshaminy has a top contender for all-state tackle this season. "Bo" at 6-3 plus and 202 pounds will be the strong man on both offense and defense, and can look for good support from veteran 200-pounders Dick Bonsall, Richard Blodgett and Stan Canter.

At the guard spot, Brian Baker will use his two years of experience to good advantage while Bob Bickel, Dave Carroll and Rich Lauther will lend an experienced hand both offensively and defensively.

Coach John Petercuskie

Bob Cummings should be ready now to fulfill earlier promises of stepping into his brother Herbie's position at center, but he can look for competition from Jack Bodziak and Rudy Kalan.

Tom Preno and Mike Wingfield have what it takes to lead the blocks in the single-wing offense while halfbacks Ed Kaminski, Bill Brundzo and Bob Barr are the leading contenders of more than half a dozen promising halfbacks.

Bruce Evans has a good hold on the fullback position but look for help from Jim Jacobs, Don Colbert and a newcomer Bob Baxter, the big man of Carl Sandburg's Jr. Hi Champions.

It's September and football time again here at NESHAMINY. A good offensive forward wall was left over from last year's high-scoring squad and even though the big scoring punch is gone, the REDSKINS may have a good throwing arm in Ed Kaminski to hit a pair of pass-catching ends. If the backs can run look for the same old NESHAMINY LIGHTNING to hit the goal lines.

Tonight we welcome a bigger and better Bishop Egan eleven, next week the Clippers of Chester, all this in preparation for Easton, Sept. 22. How good are the 1961 REDSKINS? We'll find out tonight...
