REDSKIN VARSITY COACHING STAFF

A SALUTE TO THE COACHES:

A winning team is made of individuals who come together for a common purpose. So too, a winning coaching staff is made of individuals who work with a common purpose. Head Coach Jack Swartz set the theme for his staff four years ago when he said, "We will bring back respectability to Neshaminy football." Tonite, with 31 wins, 9 losses, and 1 tie behind them, the coaching staff has met this challenge and stands on the threshold of one of the greatest seasons in Redskin history. Not only has the varsity program exploded but a fine JV squad, a spirited winning Sophomore team, and three Junior High teams are building the players who will keep Neshaminy at the top. But always, the coaching staff must take this talent and put it together as a team. Next, a multitude of information on offense and defense must be taught. Finally, the young men are ready to be tested in front of thousands of observers. So, the finest salute to any coaching staff would be to pause and remember that they are teachers working with young people. They display their class each weekend of the season.

TIME OUT

8 DOWN — 3 TO GO

LOWER BUCKS — SECTION 1

No. 1 — BISHOP EGAN —

Went down by a 27-8 score as the untested Redskins put it all together to kick-off the season on a winning note.

No. 2 — PENNRIDGE —

After a sluggish first half the 'Skins caught fire and scored often to down the Rams 46-14.

No. 3 — EASTON —

The always tough Red Rovers gave the Skins plenty of trouble but fell behind in the 2nd half to lose 34-16

No. 4 — ALLEN —

Spotting the canaries an early 7-0 lead, the Neshaminy offense shifted into gear to feature a 33-7 victory

No. 5 — DIERUFF —

Led by a hard-nosed defensive effort against the Husky wishbone, the Redskins took home a satisfying 26-8 win.

No. 6 — LIBERTY —

From the opening kick-off it was obvious the Skins wanted this one. A 33-6 victory was sweet satisfaction.

No. 7 — BENSLEM —

With the Owls having problems this year, the Skins had little difficulty in rolling to a 49-0 L.B.C. win.

No. 8 — WILSON —

Scoring in every period with an all-out offensive surge plus rock ribbed defense Neshaminy moved to a 34-6 victory.

No. 9 — FREEDOM —

Tonite the "other" Bethlehem school moves into view to do battle in the Big 7 with Neshaminy. Led by a strong quarterback, a varied offensive attack, and changing defenses, the Patriots have given everyone trouble this season. On offense, the Skins' front line must pick up stunts and changing sets. The defense will have to alert for different kinds of offensive positions, pass patterns, plus a QB who will run the ball anytime he sees daylight. In other words, the Redskins cannot allow too much Freedom tonite if they expect to take victory number nine.
