THE 1961 NESHAMINY VARSITY REDSKINS

AS THE WHISTLE BLOWS.....

the REDSKINS of Neshaminy take to the field in quest of their tenth consecutive Lower Bucks County Football Championship. Our visitors tonight, the Panthers of Wm. Tennent, cannot deny us the league title, but they can force us to share it with Pennsbury.

Over the years the Panthers have caused the Redskins more difficulty than any other school in the league and even though a 4-wins-and-4-loss-record does not sound impressive, William Tennent has a reputation for forgetting about the record and concentrating on the task at hand.....set back Neshaminy.

How about next year? It is not too early to ask about 1962 and tonight's program will enable everyone to look over the future possibilities of the REDSKINS.

The 1961 season is drawing to a close with the PANTHERS tonight, a big attraction in Delaware Township next Saturday afternoon and then the Owls of Bensalem on Thanksgiving morning. Be on hand to watch the Redskins

THE NESHAMINY VARSITY REDSKIN BACKFIELD STORY

Neshaminy's complete first backfield unit plus five more experienced backs will be on hand to face the REDSKINS' tough schedule for 1962. The "B" boys will be the story for the next two years with Bob Baxter, Bill Brundzo and Bob Barr carrying the ball and a blocking back named Preno (Tom Preno) leading the attack. Add to this outstanding backfield five good reserve backs, a few JV backs ready for the varsity, and some anxious Junior High candidates and the answer can only be a continuation of the NESHAMINY LIGHTNING power.

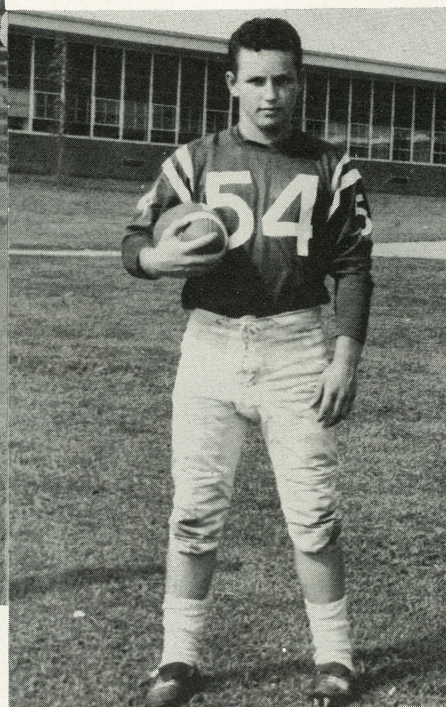

Look for a shifting in positions to give strength to obvious weak spots; for example, John Vosburgh's talents could be used for more than punting on offense--possibly an offensive end. Other changes may also come about in 1962.

Veteran Varsity Backs for 1962:

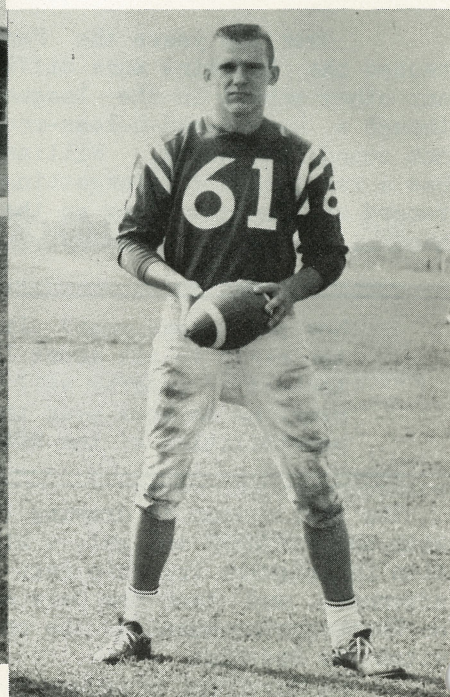

Blocking Back: TOM PRENO
Wingback: BOB BARR, Mark Ciccone, John Vosburgh
Tailback: BILL BRUNDZO, John Rothrock, Thomas Dee
Fullback: BOB BAXTER, Maury Tome

REDSKINS IN 1962

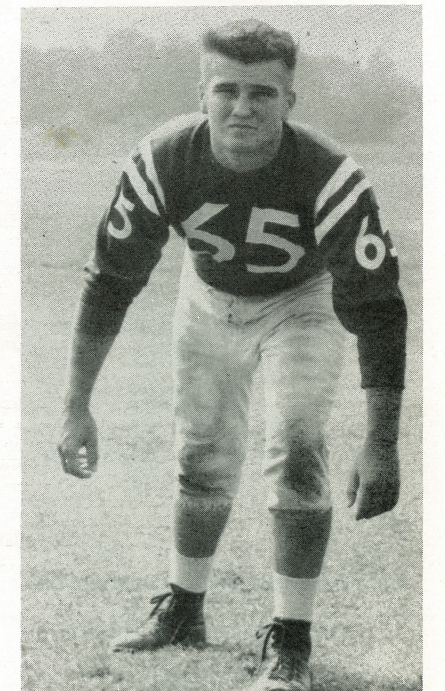

THE NESHAMINY VARSITY REDSKIN LINE STORY

Bob Cummings, center, is what remains after the REDSKINS graduate their most destructive offensive line over the past ten years. With two years of experience and a solid frame of 190 pounds, Cummings will make a good beginning for the 1962 line.

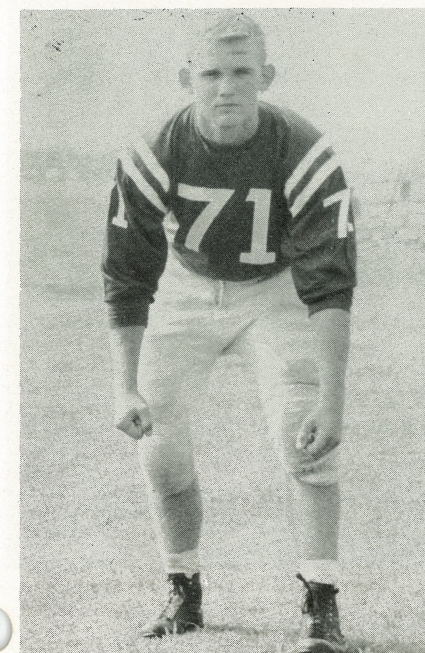

This past year allowed the coaches to utilize a goodly number of young linemen and the situation is not nearly as dark as one may think. Seven good reasons might be Richard Lauther, Ralph Basch, Bruce Galvin, John Reeves, Edward Michaels, Tom Percetti and Milt Rassier. Add to this list Keenan Mucklow, Richard Andrews, and possible defensive stalwarts John Wichelman and Bob Andrassy, and a handful of JV standouts, and another handful of very good Junior High prospects and well, it all adds up to more than four hand fulls; but Petercuskie will be contented to make up only 2 effective lines: 1 - a solid offensive wall for his highly-tutored backs and 2 - a "Savage" defensive unit to stop the likes of Easton, William Allen, Louis Dieruff, etc.

Veteran Varsity Linemen for 1962:

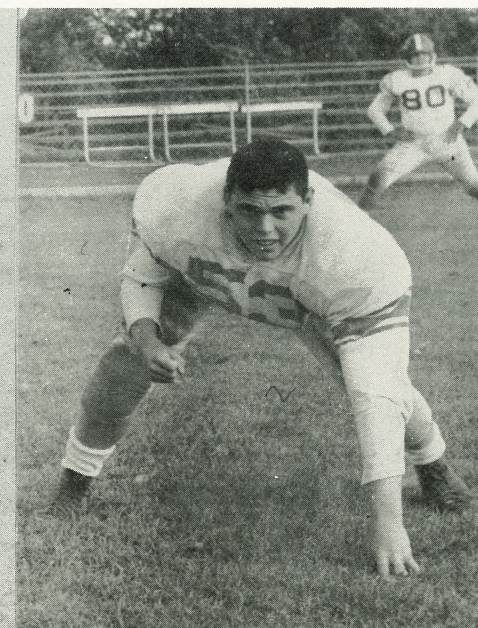

Ends: MILT RASSIER, Jerry Dorland, Wesley Harris
Tackles: RALPH BASCH, EDWARD MICHAELS, Bob Andrassy
BRUCE GALVIN, John Wichelman
Guards: RICHARD LAUTHER, TOM PERCETTI, Keenan Mucklow

THE 1961 NESHAMINY JUNIOR VARSITY REDSKINS

Back Row: Coach Hinkel, Mark Kelso, John Delaney, Allen Cantor, Harvey Eckhart, Jim Frutchie, Steve Weinstein, Bill Swartz, Fred Glasstetter, and Coach Chubb.
Kneeling: Wayne Martin, Charles Thompson, William Gehbauer, John McCarty, Charles Phillips, William Rikita, Stewart Wilson, and David Metzler.

THE NESHAMINY JUNIOR VARSITY STORY

The Neshaminy Junior Varsity represents those boys--usually sophomores--who were not impressive enough to earn a varsity uniform but who could benefit from additional teaching of the basic fundamentals of the game. This team does not consist of rejects, for those boys are cut before school games even begin.

The Junior Varsity games which are played on the Monday afternoon following the varsity contests consist of the regular junior varsity boys and any varsity sophomore and junior boys who did not see considerable action in the varsity game.

This year's JV team does offer some hope for help at the perennial weak spot of the Redskins--the end position. Steve Weinstein, John McCarty, and Bill Swartz may add some strength to the end position while Keenan Mucklow, Jim Frutchie and Mellis have shown definite promise for 1962 varsity uniforms.

The Varsity Redskin squad is not made up of boys who made the varsity on the first try--to the contrary. A look at the 1959 JV squad (two years ago) includes names like Bruce Evans, Dave Carroll, Dick Blodgett, Bill Schemberg, Jack Bodziak and Doug Lanes. The 1961 Redskins would not be sporting such an enviable record if these boys and others had not "stuck it out" through the lean years.

THE NESHAMINY JUNIOR HIGH STORY

This year the "Little Redskins" of the Neshaminy Junior High School have four possible answers to Coach John Petercuskie's near-complete loss of line power. These answers could be identified as Fred Trageman, Mike Clark, Bob Lower, and Steve Pyle who are presently the mainstays of a solid front wall.

Rich Boerckel's cousin Ted, a wing back, seems to have the credentials to earn a varsity uniform behind the steps of Bob Barr and Mark Ciccone.

Coach Lyle Augustine is attempting to restore this Junior High team to its former prominence of football superiority after a dismal season in 1961. As new head coach, Augustine has been able to boast a 3 - 1 record with a lone loss to Ben Franklin 7-0. The "Little Redskins" were Champs three consecutive years during the days of Currie, Schuh, Stricker, Boerckel and company and in two other seasons lost but one game per year.

A respectable unit of fourteen 9th graders plus many latecomers will bid for varsity uniforms next fall and only time will tell if the boys are really able to play football with the Neshaminy Senior High School "Redskins".

| | | | | 5-6 | 122 | 5-7 | 137 |
| | | | | | | 5-3 | 124 |

THE CARL SANDBURG JUNIOR HIGH STORY

Carl Sandburg Junior High is just another "chip off the old block". In its first two and one half years of competition, this school has won fourteen games without a loss and has allowed but 24 points to be scored against it.

Pal Allison piloted Sandburg in its initial two years and this year turned the controls over to Dave Patton who has maintained the "status quo" in the first three shutout wins over Morrisville, F. D. R. and Synder.

Jim Walker, blocking back, rates as a good prospect to give added strength to an all-returning varsity backfield in '62 while linemen George Kissinger, John Troyano and Tim Traister have been impressive in Jr. High matches. Ray McKoy and Mike Trimmer also bear watching as does halfback Bill Kaminski.

Eighth grader Pete Vosburgh is the only underclassman to earn a spot on the Chieftain "11" and this boy at 6-1, 173, should be ready to continue in the shoes of his brother John come the fall of '63.

Sandburg's ten starters plus twenty more ninth graders will have to do more than read their victorious clippings before Cuskie, Swartz, or Cordelli says "give that youngster a varsity uniform!", come next September.

Carl Sandburg 1961 Schedule
