The 1962 Neshaminy Redskins

As The Whistle Blows!

the unbeaten 1962 NESHAMINY REDSKINS once again step out of the debilitated Lower Bucks League to match downs and touchdowns with a new-comer to the schedule—the Bishop Kenrick Golden Knights of Norristown. The five wins and three losses registered by this year's Kenrick eleven includes an 18-6 loss at the hands of the Allentown Canaries posted the week following the REDSKINS' 14-14 tie with the same Lehigh Valley school. Numerous scouting reports indicate the same story, the Golden Knights are a really big team with a versatile offensive game centered around a set of capable backs. Actually the REDSKINS will be facing the heaviest line to date and should pay special attention to team captain Joe Smyth, Joseph Mascara and Dennis Haley. Sophomore quarterback David Boyle has earned the respect backfield is fullback Dennis Morgan.

CONGRATULATIONS go to the 1962 REDSKINS who have won, for the eleventh consecutive year, the Lower Bucks County League Championship. This was done in a warmup contest for tonight's game, when on Monday night earlier this week, the entire Neshaminy team spanked William Tennent 55-0. Neshaminy's other two Section One contests included scrimmages with Woodrow Wilson 54-6 and Pennsylvania 51-26.

To our new sporting friends from Norristown here is a quick rundown of your new opponents—the NESHAMINY REDSKINS. Offensively look for two good ends in Milt Rassier and Wesley Harris, the guard spots are manned by two tough scrappers in Jack Winder and Bruce Galvin, Ed Michael and Ralph Basch have yet to fail to open the way through our twin tackle slot, and center Bob Cummings will be a major obstacle for any defensive line to protrude.

The single-wing backfield has to be one of the best all-around Redskin four-somes during the past eleven years. Keep your eye on blocking back (and quarterback) Tom Preno, the key man on the 1962 REDSKINS; watch for the passing of Bill Brundzo, the high-stepping of wingback Bob Barr, the bull-like thrusts of fullback Bob Baxter.

Neshaminy is even better known for its defensive SAVAGES and the Golden Knights will have to contend with the likes of John Wichelman, Ray Jenkins, Jack Winder, John Vosburgh and the finest defensive lineman in the area in Rich Lauther. An incomparable set of linebackers in Bruce Galvin, Bob Cummings, Bob Barr and Tom Preno backed up by Tom Ciccone and Bill Brundzo have been responsible for halting some of the finest offensive teams in the eastern section of our commonwealth.

The Golden Knights have proved themselves to be a good team and will pose a major obstacle in the path of another undefeated Neshaminy football season; but the REDSKINS are proud of their accomplishments and would like nothing better than to spread their good name over Norristown way. We'll know soon what the Golden Knights think of our REDSKINS... AS THE WHISTLE BLOWS!

Neshaminy's Finest

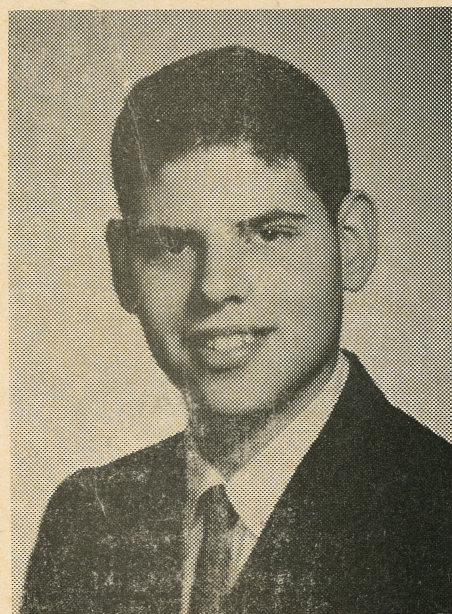

Neshaminy Senior High School takes pride in its many fine athletes and the accomplishments of its many superior athletic teams. The student body, faculty, and the administration can also point with equal pride to the high academic achievements of a great number of its students. For the past two out of three years, Neshaminy Senior High School has far outnumbered the other Lower Bucks Schools in Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists. We take pride in recognizing our 1962 Semi-Finalists tonight.
