Welcome . . .

NESHAMINY HIGH SCHOOL

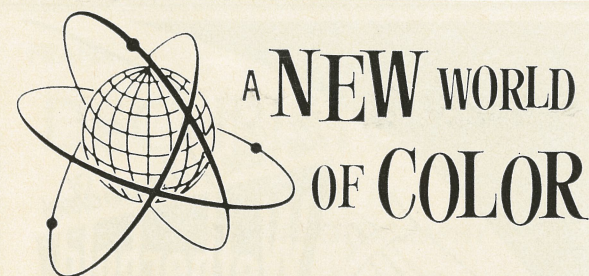

Tonite the Canaries open their home season against the powerful Redskins of Neshaminy. This will be the first game for the Canaries in the new East Penn Football League and they are anxious to get off to a flying start.

The series to date between the two clubs has the Redskins ahead by one game. Allen hopes to even the series tonite.

Coach John Peteruskie is in his fourth year as head coach with a wealth of material returning this year — especially he has a powerful backfield in Baxter who is completing his fourth year as fullback. Brundzo and Dee are two other veteran backs.
