GREAT PUMPKIN'S PREDICTIONS COME TRUE . . . . .

Last Saturday afternoon, as a standing-room-only crowd of 10,000 looked on at Pennsbury a fired up defense unit - The Savages - forced the highly touted Falcon offensive machine to give up the football twice in the first quarter of play. It took only five plays for Neshaminy to score the first time the Redskins got the ball with Billy Kaminski going 39 yards off tackle to score. The first of George Nolte's two placements made it 7-0.

Five minutes later the Redskins had the ball again and Jimmie Colbert fired an 11 yard pass to Andy Irons who gained another 27 yards before being tackled at the two yard line. On the next play Colbert sneaked over and Neshaminy led 14-0, with Nolte's kick. Pennsbury scored once in the second quarter and again in the fourth but failed to make good on its second extra point attempt when Burkhart was stopped short of the goal line.

The victory gives Neshaminy the distinction of winning the Lower Bucks and the East Penn Crown two years in a row.

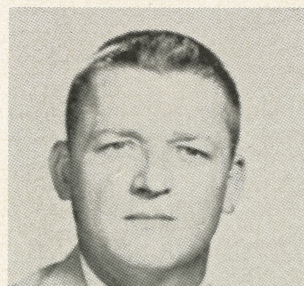

Let's welcome Delhaas - in what appears to be the last meeting between the two schools, the Redskins hope to finish another season undefeated. Delhaas comes to Neshaminy Senior High School Stadium fresh from a 7-6 victory over William Tennent last Saturday afternoon. . .

NESHAMINY HIGH SCHOOL WINTER AND SPRING INTRAMURALS

"An Invitation For All To Participate"

The Winter and Spring Intramural Programs offer to all students, an opportunity to enjoy athletic activity. Each year the scope of the program and number of participants has grown extensively. Four hundred (plus) students participated in the 1963-64 program and a larger enrollment is expected for the 1964-65 year. This increased enrollment is a result of a larger student population and the inclusion of more activities within the program. All activities are supervised by capable staff members and are conducted in the best interests of the student participants.
