

title since 1987 with a solid effort at Saturday's league meet at Pottstown High.

Kristin Reed captured gold medals in both the 800- and 1,600-meter runs as the Indians, undefeated during the regular season, racked up 98 points to best Springfield and regular-season runner-up Boyertown.

In addition to Reed's first-place showings, Upper Perk got silver-medal efforts from Trina Boyer (100 and 300 hurdles), Ashley Ohlin (400), Reed (3,200) and the 400 relay.

Bucks County All-Stars: The 30th annual Bob Sands Memorial All-Star Football Classic, better known as the Bucks County All-Star Game, will be played June 11 and will feature seven Quakertown Panthers and six Pennridge Rams.

Quakertown will be represented by Nate Cox, Ryan Davis, Mike Devlin, Dustyn Seifert, James Streapy and Sean Viers.

Pennridge running back Ryan Greiser, who will do double-duty by also playing in the Big 33 game, will be joined by Eric Fluck, Jon Small, Shane Tobin and Jared Virnelson.

The North squad will also feature players from Archbishop Wood, Central Bucks East, C.B. South, C.B. West and William Tennent.

Another KSAC crown: Friday's 5-1 victory over Shipley School lifted Perkiomen School to another Keystone Scholastic Athletic Conference regular-season baseball championship, an honor the Indians have either held or shared for the past 11 seasons.

Perkiomen improved to 10-0 in league play as Miguel
