

Neshaminy (3-1, 1-1) at Norristown (4-1, 2-1), tomorrow, 7:30 p.m. Both have felt the wrath of C.B. West in the last two weeks. Neshaminy was held to just 98 yards of total offense in a 27-0 whitewash last week, and the Eagles were blanked, 28-0, the week before. Norristown rebounded for its 28-7 victory over Bensalem last week. Both teams like to throw the ball — ninth-ranked Neshaminy behind quarterback David Welsh, eighth-ranked Norristown with Sean Scanlan.
