"REDSKINS ARE GREAT"

REDSKINS topped by Tennent Panthers.

Neshaminy played another thriller--but as happened the week before with Bethlehem--the Redskins failed to collect a scalp. Leading 20-14 at half-time the Cordelli coached boys appeared to ice the game with a touchdown in the third quarter boosting their lead to 26-14.

However, the Panthers came to life with a series of end runs and passes for two touchdowns to defeat the Redskins 28-26.

WELCOME Bishop McDevitt:

We want to extend a warm welcome to a new opponent on the Redskin schedule. Bishop McDevitt, of Harrisburg, has included in its schedule some of the finest teams in Central Pennsylvania. [Currently their record is: 1-5-1.]

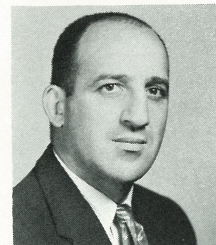

HEY DAD: Bring the family to the Pancake supper sponsored by the Langhorne Lions Club on Friday, November 10, beginning at 5 p.m. Neshaminy Senior High School Cafeteria ----Then cheer NESHAMINY to Victory over Pennsbury.

AN OPEN LETTER FROM THE NESHAMINY REDSKIN TO ALL SPORT FANS

Dear Friend:

I am proud to be the Neshaminy Redskin. As you know, I am an American Indian known for my qualities of strength, speed, stamina, determination and spirit. In representing the Neshaminy teams I have developed another quality which I consider fully as important as my physical characteristics. This is really an attitude, a desire to play fair at all times and exhibit the true spirit of good sportsmanship.

The players, coaches, faculty, students and many interested citizens have agreed to help me develop and extend this trait by placing emphasis on it at all our athletic contests this year. Will you add your support to theirs? If you will please observe the following:

1. Treat visitors to our school and athletic contests as welcome guests.
2. Be friendly to the players of both teams.
3. Respect the skill and performance of every player and every team.
4. Accept the decision of the officials and refrain from booing.
5. During crucial moments of the game, give every player of both teams fair treatment.
6. Accept the outcome of the game without complaint or alibi - win, lose or draw.

Our school has established an enviable reputation for its athletic achievements. Won't you join with me to make it equally well known for its spirit of fair play and sportsmanship? After all, this is not too much for a Redskin to ask - - and anyway, it's only good sense.

This open letter is endorsed by: The Student Athletic Board Representatives for:
