"REDSKINS ARE GREAT"

REDSKINS IN REVIEW

Coach Cordelli said they would do it and they did. The Redskins "let loose" on Bishop McDevitt of Harrisburg playing good solid defense and scoring in the air and on the ground. Senior Halfback Bill Daenz scored three touchdowns and End Bill Mahoney caught Doug Mason's first of two touchdown passes for a tally.

The "Skins" fine defense set up the last two touchdowns of the night as a blocked punt was recovered on the McDevitt 43 by Fullback Bill Magill. Doug Mason threw a strike to Bill Daenz making the score 21-6 Neshaminy. The final score came following an interception by Sophomore Halfback Steve Sroba as Daenz got his third touchdown of the night on a 12 yard run. Final score - Neshaminy 27 - Bishop McDevitt 6.

WELCOME PENNSBURY: Tonight Neshaminy welcomes the Pennsbury football team, band, cheerleaders, and spectators to what we are sure will be an exciting football game.

Pennsbury has a fine 6-2 record and is currently leading the Lower Bucks League (Section 2-0, having defeated Woodrow Wilson 40-7 last week.

WELCOME DADA:

Neshaminy High School is having a father and son night tonight. Fathers of team members are attending the pre game session in the gymnasium with their sons and during the football game they will be on the sidelines wearing the same numbered jersey. At halftime, they will attend the team briefing in the gym and then come back to the field for the remainder of the game.

Veterans Day 1967

Tonight we are honored to have in attendance a group of Vietnam War Veterans as guests of the Penndel Memorial Post 436 American Legion. The following is an open letter;

Tomorrow is Veterans Day.

Tonight is the annual football classic between two great high schools, Neshaminy High and Pennsbury High.

During the past few years student fans and players at games such as this throughout our land have suddenly found themselves to be the Veterans of our country. In every state, at high school stadiums such as this one at Neshaminy High School, students are acquiring the ingredients of courage, loyalty, and the will to win.

These ingredients that are being molded into the student's character today, may make that little difference if it is necessary for him to become tomorrow's Veteran.

God Bless our Students, and grant them a generous share of courage, loyalty, and the will to win.

The American Legion salutes our students and this country's newest Veterans, the ones coming home from a place called Vietnam.
