

Owls, 'Skins Go On 'Alert'

Bensalem Township and Neshaminy High Schools will go on the alert tonight.

The Owls of Bensalem and the Redskins of Neshaminy are both involved in important league engagements and neither club wants a repeat of what happened last year.

Bensalem, defending champions of Section Two of the Lower Bucks County Football League, will travel to Newtown tonight to meet Council Rock. The collision, set for 8:15, is expected to go a long way in deciding this year's championship.

C. R. Fell Apart
Council Rock is hoping to make tonight's battle a carbon copy of last year's rollicking 43-13 victory. The Indians of Council Rock, however, fell flat on their face after that and Bensalem still won the title. Bensalem is 1-2 while Council Rock has a 1-1 record.

Neshaminy is anticipating a battle royal from invading Louis Dieruff High School of Allentown. Neshaminy is seeking its third straight Big Six League victory and can clinch at least a tie for the crown by turning back the Huskies.

In 1964 the game was held in Allentown and Dieruff forced Neshaminy into a 6-6 deadlock. Both schools finished the Big Six Conference with identical 3-0-1 logs and shared the championship. Tonight's clash, at Langhorne, is set for 8:15. Ne-

Neshaminy's Streak At 24

Neshaminy High School will put a 24-game victory streak on the line tonight against Louis Dieruff. The Redskins have posted a 22-0-2 log in two years.

Neshaminy's last official loss on the field came in 1959 against Easton, 13-7. The Redskin record since that setback is 42-0-3, covering 45 games. A forfeited schedule in 1962 has sliced the win-streak to 24 tilts.

shaminy has an overall mark of 4-0 while Dieruff is 2-1-1. Levittown's Woodrow Wilson

(1-1-1) will also be active tonight. The Golden Rams will host Hazleton in the first meeting between the two schools. Hazleton brings a 2-2 record to the Bristol Township Field for its 8:15 match.

Five games are slated for tomorrow afternoon. Bristol (1-1) crosses the Delaware River to meet Florence, N. J., Morrisville (2-1) will motor to Huntingdon Valley to tangle with Lower Moreland (1-3) and Pennsbury (2-1) is on the road to face William Tennent (1-3).

League Games

Malvern Prep is also booked to meet Warminster's Archbishop Wood (0-3) in Hatboro and George School of Newtown will open its season at Solebury Prep at 2:30. All other affairs are listed for 2 o'clock kickoffs. The Morrisville - Lower Moreland meeting is a tilt in Section Two of the LBCFL. Tennent's hosting of Pennsbury is a Section One match.

Levittown's Bishop Egan Catholic, riding the crest of a three-game victory streak after an opening night loss to Neshaminy (41-0), goes after its second win in the Northern Division of the Philadelphia Catholic League on Sunday. Egan will be at Father Judge at 2 p.m. at the Washington High stadium on Bustleton Ave.

Directions

Colbert Top Scorer

By DICK DOUGHERTY
Courier-Times Sports Writer

Neshaminy High School's Jimmy Colbert, a 6-2, 185-pound senior quarterback, has taken a firm lead in scoring points in football after four weeks of action.

Colbert has crossed the goal line on eight runs to pile up 48 markers in four games. His closest challenger is Pennsbury's Jimmy Broadwater, a 6-2, 200-pound senior fullback.

Broadwater has notched six touchdowns to rack up 36 points. Like Colbert, all of Broadwater's scores have come on running plays. Colbert's top scoring thrusters have been runs of 58, 53 and 61 yards. Broadwater's longest jaunt for a TD is 27 yards. Broadwater has played just three games.

Tootell Notches Four
Morrisville's Tom Tootell, a 5-11, 183-pound senior, knows how to score but he does his point-making by grabbing passes from Nick Calabro. Tootell has hauled in four aerials for 24 points. The Bulldogs have played just three games.

Fourth in scoring is Pennsbury's Bill Cooper (5-10, 175-pounds). A senior quarterback, Cooper has tallied twice but has booted 10 extra points for 22 markers.

'Skin Players Ready To Play

Gerry Barr and Dick Settles, a pair of strong running halfbacks at Neshaminy High School, Langhorne, will be in uniform tonight against Louis Dieruff in a Big Six League encounter.

Barr and Settles were both injured in last week's 19-7 victory over William Allen. Barr's shoulder was just bruised and not separated as originally believed. Settles had a light concussion but resumed drills this week.

Neshaminy also received good news when Bill Elswick, a 6-0, 200-pound senior tackle, had a cast removed from his leg today. Elswick hurt his knee before the Bishop Egan game in warmups. He may be ready to play in two weeks, according to coach John Petercuskie.

AMERICANS ADVANCE

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) — American junior welterweight Robert Smith and welterweight James Scates scored knockouts over their opponents Thursday in the first day of the international military boxing championships. Light heavyweight Wilson Gilbert, another American, also advanced by scoring decision over Othmane Mabl of Tunisia.
