

Neshaminy's (5-0, 6-2) 20-19 victory over Norristown (2-3, 5-3) Friday night kept the Redskins headed toward another showdown with Pennsbury (5-0, 8-0) for the Suburban One National championship. If Neshaminy gets by Abington and Pennsbury beats Bensalem this week, the two would then meet Nov. 9 at Pennsbury for the title. In last year's final regular season game, the Falcons defeated Neshaminy to claim the crown.
