

Two of the area's top-ranked football teams — No. 2 Pennsbury and No. 3 Neshaminy — suffered setbacks yesterday in area football action.

In the Pennsbury game, Jim Scott hit teammate Brad Yurick with the game-clinching touchdown late in the fourth period as visiting Norristown upset Pennsbury, 20-8, the No. 2 team in Southeastern Pennsylvania according to The Inquirer's coaches poll, in a Suburban One League National Conference game yesterday.

Norristown's win terminated the Falcons' 14-game winning streak.

Norristown's Danny Boyd, The Inquirer's Suburban Athlete of the Week, rushed for 89 yards on 24 carries. He scored from the 12-yard line in the first period to propel the Eagles (3-0-1 overall, 1-0 league) to a 7-0 lead in the opening quarter.

A Bob Horton 42-yard interception return with 6 minutes, 40 seconds left in the first half supplied Norristown with a 14-0 lead at the intermission.

Pennsbury (3-1, 0-1) trimmed Norristown's lead to 14-8 when Mike Lyle scored on a 1-yard plunge early in the third quarter. But Scott, who passed for 139 yards on seven completions, hit Yurick with an 81-yard strike with 4:31 remaining to seal the upset.

Abington 18, Neshaminy 13 — In a battle featuring a pair of ranked and undefeated team, Larry Waugh scored three touchdowns — including the game-clincher in the final minute — and paced eighth-ranked Abington to its fifth consecutive triumph.

Waugh, a 6-foot, 190-pound senior, posted scoring runs of 10 and 3 yards in the first period on the way to a total of 119 yards rushing for the game.

Neshaminy assumed a 13-12 lead in the final period on touchdowns by Jim Dougherty and Tom Knox.

Waugh sealed the upset by Abington with a 3-yards scoring sprint with just 49 seconds remaining in the game.

Marshall Roberts, Waugh and Joel Trotter paced the Ghosts' defense, which halted a four-game Neshaminy winning streak.
