

In the past, Lambda Chi Alpha has sponsored dance-a-thons and similar fund-raising events.

"We're always happy to help with fund-raising events for any function," said Bill Beisel, the general manager at Oak Terrace. "Golf outings are a great way to make money and have fun at the same time."

●

Another example of athletes raising money for a good cause comes from the Navy Wives Club of America, Chapter Wings 218, at the Naval Air Station is Willow Grove.

The group is sponsoring a 10-team volleyball marathon on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the gymnasium of Building 1 on the base. Composed of wives of active duty reserve and retired Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel, the club hopes to raise more than $200 for the base chaplain's emergency relief fund. Attending the marathon will be the group's national president, Joey Price of California, and vice president Linda Heddon, of Connecticut.

●

A third charitable event on tap is the 10th annual Bucks County Lions all-star football game, scheduled for June 7 at 8 p.m. at Doylestown's War Memorial Field.

For the game featuring the area's top senior scholastic football players, the North squad will be composed of players from Archbishop Wood, Central Bucks East, Central Bucks West, Pennridge, Quakertown and William Tennent High Schools. Wood coach Joe Franchella will direct the team.

The South team will have players from Bensalem, Bishop Egan, Bristol, Council Rock, Harry S. Truman, Morrisville, Neshaminy and Pennsbury. Truman coach Hank Johns will direct that squad.

The North roster includes Wood's Mike Hendricks, Joe Catalano, Terry Dougherty, Chuck Purcell and Tom Mehlmann; C.B. East's Jeff Kot, Marc Gatto, Mike Fahie, Norm Boell, Geoff Japchen, Ted Dennis, Chris Wahl, Brian Price and Eric Knorr; C.B. West's Tim Donovan, Dick Beck, Mike Ratigan, Bill Kilkenny, Steve Clarke, Chris Westcott, Chris Groves, Mike Caparro and Nick Angell, and Tennent's Bill Simons, Frank Grandizio, Mark Babcock and Sean Thomas.

The assistants to Franchella will be Wood's Brian O'Hara, East's Larry Green and Keith Leamer, and Tennent's Mark Collins.