

Abington (2-5-1) at Neshaminy (6-2). Who can figure the Ghosts? Four straight league losses and nary a point scored in any one. Abington's most potent (and only?) offensive weapon, Chris Roberts, is out for the season with a broken wrist. Neshaminy, tied with Pennsbury for the league lead (at 5-0), isn't about to slip here. Not with Dick Bedesem as coach. Pick: Neshaminy.
