Pete Cordelli and Dale Forchetti teamed for three touchdown passes and Jpe Sroba returned the opening kickoff 85 yards for another score as Neshaminy scored in every period last night in dumping host Pennridge 46-14.

Cordelli hit on 5 of 11 passes for 190 yards and three were scoring strikes to Forchetti covering 14, 59 and 55 yards.

Sroba, who scored three times last week in the Redskins' opening night win, opened the game with his 85-yard return and the visitors added another TD late in the period when Pete Schupakus went seven yards for the first of his two scores.

The second period developed into a 27-point period with the Rams outscoring the Redskins 14-13.

Pennridge closed the gap to 14-6 with Dean Frankenfield going over from the one. But Neshaminy came right back with Cordelli hitting Forchetti with a 14-yard strike.

Again the home team closed the gap to a touchdown as Paul Auckland hit Greg Cook with a 38-yard touchdown pass and the former ran for the PAT. But Forchetti quickly gave the Redskins some operating room by catching a 59-yard strike from Cordelli.

In the third period Forchetti and Cordelli hooked up for a 55-yard bomb. Neshaminy completed the rout in the final period with Schupakus diving over from two yards out and Bruce Traney scoring on a one-yard run. Rich McIntyre kicked four extra points for the Redskins.
