

21 Big 7 Gridders Named To Bucks All-Star Team

Twenty-one Big Seven players — 11 from Pennsbury, 10 from Neshaminy — have been named to the 34-man South team for the first Bucks County All-Star football game, which will be played June 16 at Neshaminy.

Chuch Kane, head coach at Pennsbury, will direct the South stars, being assisted by Neshaminy's Jack Swartz and Woodrow Wilson's Pat Picariello. Schools contributing to the South team also include Bishop Egan, Morrisville and Bensalem.

Included on the South club are five members of all-state teams — three from Neshaminy's unbeaten Big Seven championship team. Neshaminy players include end Dale Forchetti, center Chuck Lodge and quarterback Pete Cordelli. Other all-staters are Bensalem's Jerry Codutti and Bishop Egan's Rich Gibney, both defensive standouts.

OFFENSE

Ends—Bob Salley, Pennsbury; Mike Harter, Woodrow Wilson; Dale Forchetti, Neshaminy; Jerry Gallagher, Bishop Egan.

Tackles—John Cleary, Pennsbury; Mike Yeager, Bishop Egan.

Guards—Phil Firth, Woodrow Wilson; Charles Conger, Neshaminy.

Centers—Andy Varga, Morrisville; Chuck Lodge, Neshaminy.

Quarterbacks—Pete Cordelli, Neshaminy; Ted Levondosky, Morrisville.

Running backs—Sam Caucci, Woodrow Wilson; Bruce Traney, Neshaminy; Jay Verna, Pennsbury; Mark Dahlman, Pennsbury.

Kicker—Jay Biddle, Pennsbury.

DEFENSE

Ends—Harry Bailey, Woodrow Wilson; Joe Neky, Neshaminy; Bill Burris, Pennsbury.

Interior linemen—Jerry Codutti, Bensalem; Ron Scheese, Morrisville; Dan Meier and Dave Phyle, Neshaminy; Rich Gibney, Bishop Egan; Tom Lawler, Pennsbury.

Linebackers—Ken Goodrow, Woodrow Wilson; Bruce McHale, Neshaminy; Paul Maysek, Pennsbury.

Backs—Denny Simon, Bensalem; Jeff Shenenfelt, Neshaminy; Dave Bahrt, Vaughn Burns and Larry Marterella, Pennsbury.