Owens completes all-state honors sweep

STROUDSBURG — Art Owens, the most explosive runner in Stroudsburg High School history, completed his sweep of all-state honors today when he was named to the first team of the United Press International All-State Scholastic Football Team.

Owens, who set two state single season records while leading the Mounties to their first unbeaten, 11-0 season and their first Lehigh Valley League championship, was named to the Associated Press all-state team Friday.

Woody Petchel, who broke three state career records while leading Pen Argyl to the Lehigh-Northampton League Northern Division title, was also named to the first team. He was also a first team A.P. selection.

Owens, a 6-0, 170 pound senior who also holds the league 100 and 220-yard and long jump track records, shattered single season Pennsylvania records for touchdowns and points. He scored 41 touchdowns and had a pair of two point conversions for 168 points.

He gained 2,648 yards for a 10.4 yard-per-carry average.

Owens ended his three-year career at Stroudsburg with 3,309 yards rushing, 49 touchdowns and 418 points. In his first season he rushed for 628 yards and scored eight touchdowns. Last year he scored 20 touchdowns and rushed for 1,246 yards.

Petchel, who was named to the second team last year, became the first Pennsylvania high school back to score more than 300 points in a career, topping by 64 the 476 record by Charlie Banks of Myersdale. He also set a career rushing record of 4,841 yards. His 88 career touchdowns also set a state standard.

A highlight of the schedule season was a late season showdown between Petchel and Owens. Petchel was outbacked when Owens scored four times as Stroudsburg beat Pen Argyl, 53-20. The loss was the only one of the year for Pen Argyl.

Mike Palmisano of Pen Argyl, who was given honorable mention as a defensive tackle on the Associated Press team, was given honorable mention on the UPI team as an offensive tackle.

United Press International did not select a defensive team.

Heading the list of vote-getters by sportswriters and sportscasters on the UPI team was Neshaminy end Dale Fucchetti, who caught 14 touchdown passes thrown by quarterback Peter Cordelli, another member of the first team.

Cordelli and Forchetti teamed up to lead the Bucks County powerhouse to an 11-0 season and Bo Burks Section 1 title. Forchetti, who scored a 15th touchdown as a return specialist and broke up numerous pass plays as a defensive halfback, caught 42 passes for 1,092 yards.

With Forchetti as his primary target, Cordelli threw 97 passes in 193 attempts for 53 touchdowns and 1,130 yards passing.

The third Neshaminy member on the first team was center Chuck Lodge.

Besides Owens and Petchel, Larry Sabey of State College captured the other halfback slot. Sabey, the 180-pound defending state wrestling champion, rushed for 1,111 yards, scoring 17 touchdowns and 106 points in leading his team to a 9-0 season and first place in the Central Counties Western Conference.

Rounding out the backfield was Frank Harsh of Ebbtsville at fullback.

Steve Adelizzi of Archbishop Carroll in suburban Philadelphia, the Catholic League's top two-sport star, and Quincy's Tony Donato finished even in balloting for the other end spot.

On the line, in addition to Lodge, it was Mike Kilby of Kiski Area near Pittsburgh and Pottstown's John Nash at tackles, and Greg Pitman of Philadelphia's Cheltenham High and Rich Mucamiso of Norristown's Bishop Kenrick at guards.

Cornhuskers outdistance Alabama
Nebraska crowned national champ

NEW YORK (UPI)—Nebraska, which parlayed a rock-hard defense and a well balanced offensive attack into a 12-0 season, is United Press International's national collegiate football champion for the second straight season.

The Cornhuskers received 29 first-place votes and 317 points from the 32 coaches of the 35 member UPI Board of coaches participating in the balloting. Nebraska easily outpointed runnerup Alabama, its Orange Bowl foe, which had 280 points. Oklahoma, which suffered its only loss to Nebraska, 35-31, on Thanksgiving Day, finished third with 249 points and unbeaten Michigan was fourth with 216 points. Ohio State, Big Ten champions, received one first-place vote.

Auburn, with only its 31-7 loss to Alabama marring its record, was fifth and Arizona State was sixth. Following the Sun Devils, who lost only to Oregon State, was Colorado. The seventh-ranked Buffs defeated everyone they played but Nebraska and Oklahoma.

Georgia, Tennessee and LSU, three Southeastern Conference powers completed the top 10. The ninth-ranked Vols dealt a serious blow to Eastern football last Saturday by defeating Penn State, 31-11, and knocking the Nittany Lions out of the final top 10.

Penn State, which still won the Lambert Trophy, symbolic of football supremacy in the East, was followed by its Lambert rival opponent, Texas (11th); unbeaten Middle Tennessee, Conference champ Toledo (13th), Houston (14th) and Notre Dame (15th).

The top 20 was completed by Pacific Eight champion Stanford (16th), Iowa State (17th), Atlantic Coast Conference champion North Carolina (18th), Florida State (19th) and Arkansas and Mississippi which tied for 20th.

UPI's national champion, in cooperation with a decision of the American Football Coaches Association, is selected on regular season performance only and does not include post season activity. This decision was affirmed by the Association's Board of Trustees at the Association convention at Houston, Tex., last January. Bill Murray of Duke, the Association's executive director, stated again today, "this is the way the coaches want it."

Nebraska, which considered the slick passing of quarterback Jerry Tagge with a devastating ground game led by running backs Jeff Kinney and All American Johnny Rodgers, averaged over 30 points per game and out-scored its opponents 469-64.

Only Oklahoma was able to test Nebraska as head coach Chuck Dennehy led the Sooners to their first national title. The Sooners matched Nebraska touchdown for touchdown in the crucial Big Eight showdown in Norman, Okla., but in the end, it was the Cornhusker defense which knotted a final Oklahoma drive.

Oklahoma will now meet Auburn in the Sugar Bowl on New Years Day, while Nebraska goes to the Rose Bowl against Stanford and Georgia takes on North Carolina in the Gator Bowl. Arizona State is the host team in the Fiesta Bowl against Florida State.

East Stroudsburg attempts third straight of season

EAST STROUDSBURG — Scott Boden holds a distinction at East Stroudsburg High School which has not been accomplished by any other coach in the school.

The graduate of Lehigh University has never lost a game in which he has coached at the school.

The Cavaliers, who were beaten in the final of the District 11 Class "B" tournament last year, seek their third straight victory of the young season tonight when they host Delaware Valley in one of four games in the area.

The Cavaliers won a 59-55 decision over Pocono Central Catholic in Boden's debut as coach and Stroudsburg is up with a 63-30 victory over Pleasant Valley. Greg Miller and Dan Whitaker provided the scoring strength in the first two games with Miller scoring a total of 61 points and Whitaker adding 37.

Delaware Valley, which was eliminated in the District 12 Class "C" tournament last year, dropped a 70-56 decision at Pocono Mountain in its opener.

Stroudsburg seeks its second straight win in three outings when it hosts Pen Argyl. The Mounties lost, 58-50, in the opener with tough Easton, but rebounded with a 71-64 win over Nazareth Friday night.

Steve Smith continued to provide the scoring for the Mounties with 25 points against Nazareth after scoring 24 in the opener. All-state football player Art Owens added 17 points against Nazareth.

Pen Argyl lost a 75-55 opener to Salisbury last week.

Pius X of Bowie, which opened its season Monday night at Bangor, plays at Pleasant Valley. Pleasant Valley dropped a 66-30 decision to East Stroudsburg in its only game an issue of the 10 Boxes who got into the game could crack double figures.

Notre Dame of East Stroudsburg seeks its first win after three straight losses when it plays at St. John's, Pittston. The Spartans dropped decisions to Notre Dame, Green Pond, Bishop Hannan and Pocono Central Catholic.

Where's area weakness?

By CHUCK PIERSON
Record Sports Editor

When people starting talking about Pennsylvania football, they point mostly to the western portion of the state for strength in the high school ranks. For some reason they never stop in Penn about the power of the East.

Now, when the subject of Eastern scholastic football is approached, football followers talk about leagues such as the Big Five or the Big Seven. They never stop to think of the power of the Lehigh Valley League of the Lehigh-Northampton League.

But after looking at the all-state selections, maybe they'll change their minds.

Members of both leagues were represented at all but two positions on offense and at all but end on defense on the United Press International and Associated Press all state teams.

Art Owens of Stroudsburg and Woody Petchel of Pen Argyl lead the list of talent from the two leagues. Owens, who led the Mounties to an 11-0 season and the Lehigh Valley League championship, shattered two state records.

Petchel, who snapped three Pennsylvania records, paced the Green Knights to the Lehigh-Northampton League Northern Division title.

Here's how the all-state representation from the two leagues shapes up:

Bangor wins 3rd game of season

BANGOR — Bangor continued to serve notice that it means business in the Northern Division of the Lehigh-Northampton League Monday night as it rolled to its third straight basketball win without a loss, an 87-71 decision over Pius X of Bowie.

The victory was the sixth straight over two seasons.

The Sliders, who are now averaging 80 points per game, opened up a 22-17 lead in the first period as Dick Bet scored eight of his 20 points. Bangor put three men in double figures. Nick Pinto added 22 and Tom Rotolli 19.

Bangor opened a 39-31 first at the half and stretched the margin to 16 points in the third period. But the Royals, playing their first game of the season, closed the margin to 69-58 late in the third period and narrowed the gap to 83-80 early in the fourth period.

But Bangor put on a spurt at the end of the game to regain a commanding lead.

George Hicks, who was the third leading scorer in the area last year with an 18.1 average, led the Royals with 24 points.
