

Pa. Big 33 Checklist

HARRISBURG — Linemen came in for the major share of recognition in this week's Big 33 nominations to the check list.

Jeff Stempel, Central Bucks West, 6-4, 205-pound split end, caught a 40-yard pass to set-up the winning score against Hatboro Horsham in final seconds. He has 442 yards in receptions for the season despite playing with a broken finger.

Jim Smith, Delone Catholic, 6-0, 204-pound guard-linebacker, was another standout selection based on top play throughout the season. He was scouted by Jack LeFevre, Hanover Sun sports editor.

Among western selections were tackles Mark Savasta, Norwin, 6-0, 200; Paul Furin, Yough, 5-10, 235 and Jeff Weeks, Franklin Regional, 6-2, 190.

Donald Selvey, Harrisburg, 6-4, 218-pound tackle, blocked a Central Dauphin field goal, paving way for Frank Mathis to return it 55 yards for deciding TD in final minutes of play.
