LINEMEN

- Steve Caputo, Unionville. Caputo was an imposing and dominant guard that helped the Indians rush for more than 3,000 yards in 12 games. He has orally committed to Temple.
- Tim Gramlich, Chestnut Hill Academy. A strong and quick-footed guard, Gramlich was a big reason the Blue Devils averaged 220 yards rushing and 120 yards passing per game.
- Brandon Heath, West Chester Henderson. A lot of Henderson's running plays went behind the mammoth running. He is a sure-fire Division I recruit.
- Ryan Murray, Bok. A force at tackle, the Temple recruit was a big reason why tiny tail-back Luke Lassiter rushed for more than 1,300 yards and the Wildcats advanced to the Public League final.
- Travis Poston, Hatzboro-Hor-

sham. He has good feet, is an excellent blocker on the edge and can get out and block line-backers and defensive backs. Poston has orally committed to Villanova.

QUARTERBACK

■ Nolan Kearney, Downingtown West. A threat both throwing and running, he accounted for 2,805 total yards (2,250 passing, 555 rushing). In completing better than 60 percent of his passes, Kearney threw for 21 TDs, with only three interceptions. He has orally committed to William and Mary.

RUNNING BACKS

■ Rashad Campbell, Chestnut Hill Academy. The diminutive speedster rushed for 1,452 yards and had 27 total TDs. He is being recruited by a number of Division I-AA schools, including Penn and Cornell.

■ Ballal Lewis Sloan-El, Roman Catholic. In helping the Catholic League Red Division crown, he rushed for 2,441 yards and 22 TDs. He averaged 214 rushing yards in Roman's first five games and gained 118 yards in the title win over St. Joseph's Prep.

■ Eric Reynolds, Central Bucks South. The league's player of the year rushed 260 times for 2,830 yards and 34 TDs. In his three-year career, Reynolds netted 4,722 rushing yards and 62 TDs. He also starred as a kick returner.

TIGHT END

■ John Jackson, Central Bucks South. A skilled run blocker, Jackson helped South gain more than 3,700 rushing yards in 12 contests. He is getting interest from Division I-A and I-AA colleges.

WIDE RECEIVERS

■ Derek McKinley, Downingtown East. With McKinley catching 62 passes for 891 yards and 18 TDs, the Cougars went 8-3 overall and 3-2 in the Ches-Mont's National Division.

■ Nijha White, Conestoga. In nine games, the fast and sure-handed wideout had 53 receptions for 1,088 yards and 19 TDs. Ticketed to Duke, White was a first-team all-Central League selection.

ALL-PURPOSE

■ Andrew Hodges, Ridley. A bruising runner and bone-rattling tackler, Hodges was the driving force behind the Green Raiders. He rushed 303 times for 1,790 yards and 28 TDs. The linebacker led a defense that yielded just 8.2 points per game.

■ John O'Donnell, West Chester Henderson. He was a two-way stalwart, at quarterback and safety, for the Warriors. O'Donnell rushed for 1,237 yards, passed for 707 yards and scored 20 TDs. A three-year starter on offense, he ended his career with 108 tackles and four interceptions.

KICKER

■ Patrick Campbell, Council Rock North. He drilled 13 field goals, including four of more than 40 yards, was 21 for 22 on point-after attempts and had 28 touchbacks.

All-Southeastern Pennsylvania Football First-Team Defense

Here is a look at the all-Southeastern Pennsylvania first-team defense:

LINEMEN

■ Jewhan Edwards, Roman Catholic. Strong and quick, the Minnesota recruit consistently caused problems for opposing linemen. In the Catholic League Red Division final against St. Joseph's Prep, he blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown.

■ Bob Loh, Phoenixville. The two-way end posted 45 tackles, 15 sacks and recovered a fumble for a touchdown. He has orally committed to Vanderbilt.

■ Pete Massaro, Marple Newtown. Despite missing three games with an injury, the Penn State recruit totaled 36 tackles, including nine for losses, and six sacks.

■ Jeff Matteis, Haverford High. At defensive end, he registered 70-plus tackles for a unit that allowed only 11.6 points per game and notched three shutouts. Temple, Villanova, Brown, Lehigh and Yale have been in contact.

■ Shahid Paultill, North Catholic. The Falcons' two-way tackle was an interior force, always active, and is held to take plays off. He is headed to Temple.

LINEBACKERS

■ Bob DeLucas, Archbishop Wood. His gritty play as a running back and middle linebacker helped the Vikings reach the Catholic League Blue Division championship game.

■ Jahair Khan, West Chester Henderson. A quick-footed linebacker, Khan was involved in 300 tackles and recorded four sacks. He also was one of the area's most dangerous kick returners.

■ Mike Pereira, St. Joseph's Prep. The hard-nosed junior was always around the ball and a force hitter. With Pereira leading the way, the Hawks yielded only 7.8 points per game and had three shutouts.

■ Chris Spence, Frankford. A rugged tackler with excellent range, he was the centerpiece of the Pioneers' defense. After Frankford had to sit out the playoffs because it used an overaged player, Spence made sure he and his teammates finished strong.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

■ Louis Brown, Upper Dublin. Quick and versatile, Brown was involved in 70-plus tackles, made 10 interceptions and recovered three fumbles (two for TDs). He played wide receiver, running back, quarterback and kick returner.

■ Greg Castillo, St. Joseph's Prep. The shutdown cornerback did not see many passes thrown his way. Castillo also chipped in as a receiver (21 catches for 538 yards and nine TDs) and kick returner. Bowling Green and Stanford, among others, have offered scholarships.

■ Jim McGoldrick, St. Joseph's Prep. A smart player, with excellent instincts, he was arguably the Prep's most valuable player. At safety, he covered and tackled well. McGoldrick also returned four punts and a kickoff for TDs.

■ Abdul Smith, Perkiomen School. The lightning-quick safety is getting recruited by top-flight Division I-A programs across the country. He had 59 tackles and four interceptions.

PUNTER

■ Jordan Waxman, Quakertown. Drawing recruiting interest from Temple and Toledo, he averaged 39 yards per punt, with a long of 61 yards. Five of his punts were downed inside the 5-yard line. For his career, Waxman had 16 field goals and 54 PATs.
