

No. 2 Neshaminy (3-0) at Abington (2-1), tonight, 7. Rebounding from 2006's subpar 6-4 season, Neshaminy has the look of a District 1 Class AAAA championship contender. Halfback Jason Ulmer runs behind an improved offensive line. One of quarterback Justin Kinney's top targets is 6-foot-3, 235-pound tight end Paul Carrezola. Rebounding from an overtime loss to Central Bucks East, Abington righted itself with wins over Plymouth Whitemarsh and Northeast. QB Kevin Morton and running back Kahlil Pittman face a stiffer challenge tonight.

Pick: Neshaminy, 27-13.
