

La Salle QB Matt Magarity (17) is stopped by North Penn's Ralph Reeves last Sept. 2. The teams meet again Saturday.

Neshaminy quarterback Charlie Martorella attempts a pass late in last season's 28-21 loss to Council Rock South. The teams will meet again this season on Oct. 14, in what could very well decide the Suburban One League National Conference title.

10 GAMES TO WATCH THIS SEASON

Friday night
Southern at Neshaminy, 7 p.m. Expect a tact contest at Heartbreak Ridge. Two of the three meetings between these teams have gone down to the wire. The Indians clocked out a 14-13 win in 2009; Neshaminy escaped, 23-19, last year.

Saturday night
North Penn vs. La Salle, at Plymouth Whitnans, 8 p.m. Can you say revenge? Both of the Knights' losses last season came against La Salle. This is the site of last December's Class AAAA semifinal thriller, won by La Salle, 38-35.

Sunday
Archbishop Wood vs. Pittsburgh Central Catholic, at Gateway, 2 p.m. This marquee matchup will be televised on ESPN2. Wood has to slow Maryland recruits quarterback Perry Hills and wideout Anthony Dixon.

Sept. 10
West Catholic vs. Archbishop Wood, at William Tennant, 7 p.m. Talent-rich Wood has extended for top Class AAA honors in each of the last three seasons; the always-speedy Bears took home Class AA gold last year.

Sept. 23
Catesville at Downingtown East, 7 p.m. The Red Raiders take on the ever-crank at beating Drew Harris and company. Last year, with Harris netting 147 yards on 33 carries, Downingtown East triumphed, 21-14.

Oct. 7
Spring-Ford at Boyertown, 7 a.m. Spring-Ford has a stellar pass-catch duo in Hank Coyne and Andrew Scanlan. The Bears will look to run behind 6-foot-6, 285-pound force and Rutgers recruit Chris Muller.

Oct. 14
Neshaminy at Council Rock South, 7 p.m. Neshaminy and Pennsbury have different plans, but the Suburban One League's National Conference championship likely will be on the line at Walt Snyder Stadium.

Oct. 21
Southern at North Penn, 7:30 p.m. This could be the year that the Indians, with an experienced and dangerous backfield, end North Penn's Knights' unraveling on the Suburban One League Continental Conference crown.

Oct. 28
St. Joseph's Prep vs. La Salle, at Plymouth Whitnans, 7 p.m. Yes, the Explorers romped, 31-7, last season. But the Prep, having had a chance to get a real feel for coach Gene Infante's system, should be much improved.

Nov. 4
Haverford School at Malvern Prep, 7 p.m. Haverford has been a razor-sharp team in Malvern's side. Can the Friars end the frustration and possibly clinch an outright Inter-Ac League title — on their new turf field?
