REMEMBER THE DAY WE PICKLED MORRISVILLE

As The Whistle Blows

There's an old saying, "The more a person gets, the more he wants". That brief statement may well sum up the feelings of the football squad and the Neshaminy fans; the REDSKINS, who may have been rated with a feeling of skepticism at the beginning of the '60 season have emerged as the most potent offensive eleven yet to wear the Red and Blue uniform. During the first seven games, the REDSKINS have accumulated 255 points (Cuskie's first year with Franks, the 1954 team with Don Cameron and Skins, hold the offensive record of 349 points in a 10-0 season). While setting this 36 plus points per game the REDSKIN machine was beating Egan (41-6), Chester (32-6), Wilson (40-0), Bristol (46-0), Morrisville (42-0), Pennsbury (41-7) and breaking even with powerful Easton High School (13-13).

The Redskins are not only scoring conscious, for a little closer look at the scores will tell one that the 1960 team may also erase the 1959 league defensive record (33 points) and the 1956 over-all record (45 points) in a season. The SAVAGES this year allowed their first league score last week and have thus far limited their seven opponents a grand total of 32 points.

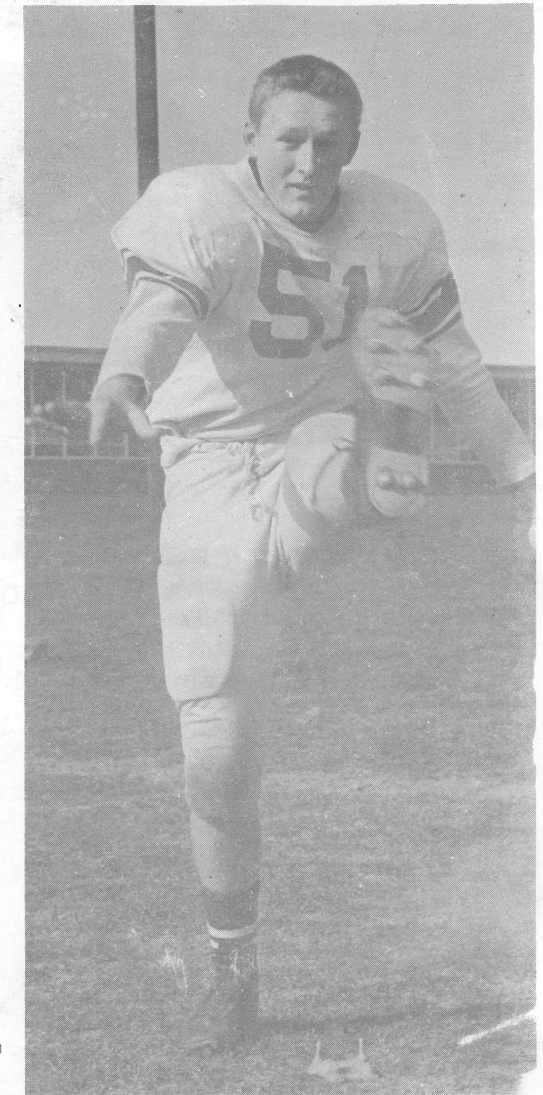

Those who have followed NESHAMINY'S grid-iron fortunes needn't be reminded of the outstanding performances of both the line and the backfield, led by such key players as blocking back Rich Boerckel, half-backs Jack Stricker and Franny McCollum and fullback Harry Schuh and an array of fresh talent in Preno, Vosburgh, Rothrock, Barr, Evans and Wingfield.

The NESHAMINY LINE, still under the personal eye of Head Coach John Petercouskie, has been the decisive factor in the REDSKINS' prolific scoring punch; for when Stricker and Schuh carry the ball they are well aware of the protection and support given by Allan Rell, Rich Held, ends Jack Currie, Brian Baker, guards;

See the next two pages as the 1960 line is spelled out in full measure as they prepare for a practice session, game session, and a class session.

John Carber, Dick Bonsall, tackles; and Jerry Hertz, center.

Bill
Schemberg,
Junior

The Tigers of Delhaas Hi under new coach Andrew Lacek have yet to post a win in 1960—a hard-fought tie with Bristol has been Delhaas' only bright spot this season. The Tigers may find it tough to score their usual one T.D. per game if the big line of SAVAGES stays alert and aggressive the full 48 minutes.

The SKINS should have little difficulty in maintaining their '60 form in the next three tilts, starting with Delhaas tonight, Wm. Tennent, next Saturday and Council Rock in two weeks; however, Marlon Van Horn and the Bensalem Owls have matched the Skins score for score and the 1960 Homecoming on November 19 may well include some unexpected fireworks. Why not plan to be on hand to give the REDSKINS your support on each of these occasions.....
