WELCOME TO MEMORIAL FIELD

The Abington School District extends greetings to our visitors. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy your stay.

The energy, enthusiasm and dedication of players and coaches, for both teams, ensures an afternoon which is both pleasurable and memorable. While each side will try to emerge victorious today, each of the fine young athletes competing is already a winner, as are the cheerleaders and band members, students and parents, who lend their support throughout the season.

We know that you are here to support your team, but we invite you to cheer the efforts of all participants in this afternoon's activities.

Louis J. Hebert
Superintendent of Schools

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

On behalf of Abington Senior High School, I welcome all of our spectators to today's football game. Abington, home of the "Galloping Ghosts", is proud of its tradition of excellence in football as well as in other areas of athletic competition. We trust that you will enjoy today's game and your visit with us.

Also always ready to welcome you are the members of the Abington Senior High School Marching Band, the cheerleaders, the student body, and many dedicated and hardworking parents and staff.

The athletic program is an important part of the total educational program offered our young people and it is in this program that the spirit of teamwork and sportsmanship are taught. An integral part of these concepts are respect and admiration for players on the opposing team.

As we support our team this year, let us remember that Abington is not only first in the alphabet, but also first in achievement, first in athletics, and first in attitude.

Norman W. Schmid
Principal
Abington Senior High School

THE GALLOPING GHOSTS

A nickname comes about very often from the merest trifle, and fifty years later its recipient is often hard put to explain its origin. Such is not the case with the Abington football team and its nickname, the "Galloping Ghosts". Coach Glenn R. Snodgrass, 1926 - 1943; 1946, played and learned his football at the University of Illinois, where he was a teammate of the immortal Harold "Red" Grange, perhaps the greatest football player ever to come out of college. "Red" Grange had earned the sobriquet, the "Galloping Ghost", because of his flawless ball carrying as an All-American member of the Illinois backfield. Grange came to Philadelphia in the latter 1920's as a member of the Chicago Bears, in the fledgling NFL, and Coach Snodgrass asked him to come out to Abington to speak at a pep rally. The occasion was so impressive and Grange's presence so appreciated that Abington adopted Grange's nickname for its football team. We have been the "Galloping Ghosts" ever since. "Red" Grange did not forget Abington. In 1967, upon the occasion of Abington's fiftieth anniversary of football, we received a telegram from the original "Galloping Ghost", congratulating our school. This telegram is on display in one of our trophy cases in the Senior High School.

Sadly, "Red" passed away in January of 1991, but his spirit lives on with the Abington Galloping Ghost Football Team.

“Sometimes, I feel like
 I don't know what I want.”

A good cry?

Cheering my head off?

Laughing out loud?

Being a kid again?

Singing along?

“At the end of a tough day, I just plop into a comfy chair and just chill out. But sometimes, I'm not sure what I'm in the mood for. “That's when I turn to Comcast. My cable TV. It's always there for me with a wide world of possibilities. “From great movies to a big game to cool music or a hot comedy special. The variety's endless. The choice is mine. The cable is Comcast.”

HE

He moves ahead where others fear to venture. Always looking forward he never looks back. "You never look behind for a leader, you look to the front."

He may be small, but his heart is big, and that's what counts. You can measure his ability, but not his heart.

His hands are on the present, his eyes are on the future, and his back is on the past. He'll only talk when he has something to say. He has pride, and that says it all, pride in what he does, pride in what he thinks.

His mind works quick, his body functions like a well-oiled machine, to hesitate is to lose. To react is to conquer.

He has desire, desire in what he does, a desire to perform, a desire to react, a desire to do well, to win.

His senses are geared to his way of life, nobody can tell him what to do. All eyes are on him when he performs, but to him only God is watching.

He has backbone, when something is to be done he doesn't look for someone else, he does it himself. He needs nobody to push him, if pushed he's liable to snap back with a crack.

He has a feeling deep inside, a feeling which is hard to describe, the feeling of a thousand butterflies running recklessly inside him. His palms will sweat, his knees might tremble ever so slightly, but this is why he's here.

He may be knocked down, but he'll get up time and again. It's not a sin to get knocked down; it's a sin to stay down.

He has pride in all, desire in everything. He's a man:

He is an athlete.

He is a football player!

IF THE SHOE FITS

*Please don't curse that boy down there
He is my son you see,
He's only just a boy you know
He means the world to me.
I did not raise my son, Dear Fan
For you to call him names,
He may not be a super-star
It's just a high school game.*

*So please don't curse those boys down there,
They do the best they can,
They never tried to lose a game.
They're boys, and you're a man.
This game belongs to them, you see,
You're really just a guest,
They do not need a fan like you,
They need the very best.*

*If you have nothing nice to say,
Please leave the boys alone
And if you have no manners
Why don't you stay at home!
So please don't curse those boys down there,
Each one's his parents' son,
And win or lose or tie, you see
To us, they're number one!!!*

“ At first, my coach thought I'd be out for the season. Now he can't believe how quick I was back in the game. The Sports Medicine Center really helped me overcome my injury. ”

When an injury keeps you from your game, the Sports Medicine Center can help you deal with the pain and bring you back to a previous (or better level) of performance. You can work out at any health club, but when you're serious about training and rehabilitation, there's only one place to come...Sports Medicine.
