REDSKINS VS. NORRISTOWN THE OPENER

Some Eagles visited Neshaminy last week, but they weren't the same birds the 'skins expected. The Norristown Eagles replaced the Egan Eagles for this first game and they managed to take advantage of some costly Redskin funbles which helped Norristown to a 34-8 victory. Concentration seemed to be the 'Skins main problem, as the Norristown backs were able to break loose for a few big scoring plays. Neshaminy's light defensive contingent played solid ball other than the big play gainers the Eagles threw at them. One bright spot for Neshaminy was Senior tailback Fred Calkins. Hard running Fred rolled up 117 yards and scored the 'Skins only Touchdown on a three yard burst. Tonight Neshaminy will go for their initial victory as they play West Catholic.

PROFILING THE COACH:

RANDY KURZINSKY

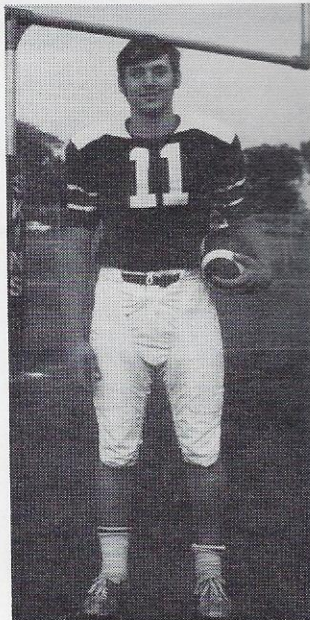

Defensive Coach Kurzinsky attended Mahanoy Township High School where he played center and linebacker. Upon graduation, Randy spent some time at Rutgers University before transferring to Bloomsburg State College where he graduated with a B.S. in Mathematics. Since then, Coach Kurzinsky has managed to find time to earn his MEd from Temple University.

Randy taught for several years at his high school Alma Mater prior to coming to Neshaminy. Since entering "Redskin Territory," Randy has been involved with Neshaminy football on all levels from J.V.-Coach to his present position as the Defensive Co-ordinator. During his "Free" time, coach Kurzinsky is remodeling his house. This, plus winter basketball, keeps Randy's ample physique under control.

SCORING: Ten right-Excellent, the Courier Times needs you. Eight or nine right - Good, you've obviously thrown a few passes in your time. Seven or six right - Average, the Sports Illustrated crowd, you know a little bit about everything. Five or four right - Poor, street fighting didn't give you much time to learn about other sports, did it? Less than four right - Very bad, the game is called football, it's spelled . . .
