Neshaminy VS Maple Point

NORRISTOWN 34 NESHAMINY 8

The Redskins opened their season with a loss to Suburban One Powerhouse, Norristown. The Eagles scored early to seal the victory and then let their defense hold back Neshaminy. Skins' tailback Fred Calkins rushed for 117 yards.

WEST CATHOLIC 6 NESHAMINY 0

A second period pass was the only score in this defensive struggle. Unfortunately the Burrs of West put the points on the board and then held off a late Neshaminy surge to ice the victory.

NORTH CATHOLIC 28 NESHAMINY 7

With two quick scores, North Catholic put the Redskins in a hole early in the first period. After the slow start, Neshaminy stiffened up in the second half to hold the Falcons scoreless. Neshaminy's lone score came on a Matt Horton 70 yard burst in the last quarter. The junior tailback led the Redskin offense with 99 yards on 10 carries. Defensively, Kevin Lane made more than his share of saving tackles.

DELHAAS 0 NESHAMINY 21

Last week the Redskins put together a solid defensive effort with a big ground game and came away with a convincing win. Defensively, the 'skins held Delhaas to 68 net yards on the ground and cut off the Tigers' attempts to score. Leading the Big "D" contingent were Chris Cechak, Chris Bezick and Ken Townsend. When the 'skins had the ball, their runners ripped the Tigers for 197 yards. Neshaminy was paced by Junior Matt Horton's Two TD's and 80 plus yards rushing. Senior Fred Calkins scored the first Neshaminy TD on a 16 yard burst. Bob Ware was perfect on his three PAT's.

BENSALEM 10 NESHAMINY 7

The Redskins suffered their fourth loss of the season as both the Neshaminy and Bensalem Defenses controlled the game. Although the skins had a few opportunities in the last quarter to pull out the game, the Owls stymied those attempts.
