

PAT Is Vital For Neshaminy

Neshaminy High coach Pete Cordelli found a new offensive weapon his Redskin Lineup Friday night — placekicker Cragi Vosburgh.

It was Vosburgh's third period placement that carried Cordelli's Redskins to a thrilling 7-6 decision over tough William Allen of Allentown at the losers field.

While N e s h a m i n y was grinding out its narrow win over Allen, two other Lower Bucks clubs also were on their way to impressive wins.

Bristol High remained unbeaten with a thrilling 19-13 triumph over Lower Moreland, while Morrisville handed visiting Jenkintown a 13-0 setback at Robert Morris field.

Meanwhile, Lou Sorrentino's Woodrow Wilson Rams were having all kinds of problems at Levittown as they battled William Tennent to a 7-7 deadlock.

Vosburgh's perfect PAT was all the Neshaminy boys needed to ring their overall mark to a respectable 2-2 and give Cordelli visions of a winning season.

Allen, which had suffered a 6-0 setback at Pennsbury the week before, got the jump on the visiting Redskins by scoring their only TD in the second period on Daryl Tolinche's 23 yard run. The all-important extra point attempt failed however, and Allen had to settle for a 6-0 edge.

In the third quarter Neshaminy drove in for the winning score when Bill Daenz snared a 19-yard aerial from quarterback Doug Mason, and Vosburgh booted his game winning point after.

Bristol's Larry Miller powered over from the three yard line with three seconds left on the clock to give the Warriors their thrilling win. Miller's winning run capped a 40 yard drive that had started with 27 seconds left to play.

Miller also scored the first Bristol touchdown on a 36 yard run, while Tony Embessi hit Chuck Davis with a nine yard toss for the second Warrior tally.

Pass Sparks Bulldogs

Morrisville used a 10-yard scoring pass from Bill Sheese to Bill Martin and a 34 yard jaunt with an interception by Rick Lee to account for its win over Jenkintown.

Wilson spotted Tennent a 7-0 lead and then came back with a third period touchdown of its own to deadlock the Panthers.

Tom Connors three yard plunge and Bob Wolfrom's extra point had put the Panthers on top, until Bill Saren's one-yard dive capped a 70 drive by the Rams in the third period for the Wilson TD. Stan Startzell booted the game-tying point after for Wilson.
