

Neshaminy athletes are honored

MR. BACK — Bill Daenz who was named Mr. Back at Neshaminy football banquet Monday night. (DVA photo)

(Continued from Page 1)

an example of sheer pride in his job and record.

Lion President Carl McDermitt commended Banquet Chairman Dick Zalot for his efforts and also congratulated the Lower Southampton 1151b football team who were guests of the Lions. The youngsters will be playing this weekend in Atlantic City's Convention Hall.

Grid banquet speaker

Joe Scarpati, Philadelphia Eagles defensive back, will be the speaker at the annual Neshaminy football banquet sponsored by the Langhorne Lions, Nov. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Last-minute reservations may be made by calling chairman Richard Zalot, SKyline 7-4030.