

Redskins Enjoying Comeback

PERKASIE, Pa. — Pete Cordelli is all smiles today, but its back to serious business Friday night when the Neshaminy forces open its Big Six competition, facing Easton on the Redskins field. The game gets underway at 8 p.m.

Neshaminy gave Cordelli his first varsity coaching victory Friday night with a come-from-behind 20-12 triumph over host Pennridge. The Skins trailed briefly in the first period by a 6-0 margin.

Rams' Jeff Eakin returned a punt 95 yards for the 6-0 advantage. On the kickoff, Neshaminy's Steve Scroba returned the boot 90 yards to equal the score.

Johns Scores Twice

Craig Johns, a five-foot, seven-inch speedster, took over the scoring punch for Cordelli with a pair of five yard six pointers. Greg Vosburgh added the two PAT's.

Pennridge came back with a 5 yard TD pass from Dave Kern to Jack Yoder.

Neshaminy pass offense had its difficulties, failing to connect on only three attempts. The Skins did not throw a pass in the second half. Although the visitors notched a total of 21 first downs.
