

Redskins to meet the Owls

By Frank Bertucci

Special to The Inquirer

There could be daytime fireworks at Bensalem on Saturday afternoon when the Owls (6-2, 3-2) host Neshaminy (4-3, 1-3) (1:30 p.m.).

Bensalem running back Edmund Robinson has rushed for 966 yards and 9 touchdowns this season, while Neshaminy quarterback Cornelius White has completed 59 of 108 passes for 1,253 yards and 10 TDs, 8 of those scoring passes to Neal Plaskonos.

With three losses, the Redskins are already out of the chase for the Suburban One National Conference's Patriot Division championship, and Bensalem can't lose another game if it hopes to catch pace-setting Pennsylvania.