

Neshaminy Tops Wilson

After losing four straight games Neshaminy took its third in a row, blanking Woodrow Wilson, 10-0.

With the win, the Redskins moved into a first-place tie with Pennsbury in Section One of the Lower Bucks County League.

The Redskins (4-4; 3-0) didn't score in the first period, but earned a 3-0 intermission edge when Jeff Ratner boomed a 33-yard field goal.

Tom Dodd added insurance markers in the last session by driving over from the 12-yard-line.
