Over in the fourth period Dieruff took over on downs at the Neshaminy 45 after the visitor had controlled the ball for last two possessions.

Neshaminy had one last-minute drive to the field. Dieruff intercepted a Swartz pass and only 11 seconds left in the game.

BY PAUL REINHARD
 BOSTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Bluejackets' defense was held for a second period and then dominated the Blue Sevens victory before 4,000 fans in the ASD Stadium.

"I'd say ever so a bunch of spirited kids as well," Jock Beckmark should be an expected the congratulations of 'Hank' DeLozier in the dressing room.

"We kids did it all. On defense we played with what we had and on offense we did up, used a break to go for the touchdowns, but the winning six-pointer was the result of the Bluejackets' 'post-back'."

The intercepted Bluejacket were in for a long night as the Redskins (2-4) drove 60 yards in 12 plays the second time they hit the ball. And they scored the same way they wrecked last week's power, running the pass.

Dieruff took hold in the driver seat, taking on at least Neshaminy runners to turn loose on the offense.

And even on the touchdown run, an eight-yard sprint by Strub, who galloped only 49 yards in 21 carries, the Bluejackets missed a tackle. Strub carried five times in the drive for 57 yards, but he was caught a lay-third down pass for another nine yards. Strub and guards Cuzzo and Bledsoe were the Redskins' 70-yard lead with 1:33 remaining in the first period.

But from then on it was all Dieruff as John Corazza, Gus Doskaleski and Dan Sandak scored for the Bill Ables' Bluejackets. And John Burkhardt, Gus Doskaleski and Howard Kirk took the lead with a 22-yard second half — nothing in the third period as Corazza, Dan-ald and Sandak took turns running with the big play.

The Bluejackets, who gained 137 yards on 49 carries, bottled out the Redskins' blocking line, especially from center Jim Sawyer and guards Cuzzo and Bledsoe and Howard Kirk. The Bluejackets' defense also held the Redskins to just second half — nothing in the third period as Corazza, Dan-ald and Sandak took turns running with the big play.

NO YOU DON'T — Dieruff's John Corazza (60) dives over a teammate to stop Neshaminy's Charlie Gearhart (23) after a short gain. Holding onto Gearhart's foot is Dan Lagacy.

any resemblance between the Bluejackets and the Redskins. Allen team that played last night and the Redskins' play last week is purely coincidental.

The Canaries knocked Jack, but, as was thought like the conference here may well have been Liberty on the strength of a pair of clutch receptions by Tom Dillon caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from quarter-back George Whazy with 7:31 left in the game and then was given the aid of a two-point conversion pass from Whazy to give Allen the slender lead of 10-0 from 1:30 in Bethlehem School District Stadium.

Allen scored two touchdowns during the first period and another during the second, but Whazy would have been 15-0, had he not been intercepted in the second period, and still another by the fourth.

The tie set a damper on what many Liberty fans think could be the best season in 16 years. The Hurricane is now 1-5 for the first time since 1961, the two clubs were tied in Thanksgiving Day rematch and they will see Rico and Liberty Coach Bob Buffman watch

Allen marched 75 yards on eight plays for theiding touchdown. A Wharty-Jim Thomas pass for 2 yards put the ball in the Liberty yard and a 56-yard run by Jeff Lapp and a 15-yard pass to the Hurricane moved the ball to the 24.

On four plays they speared Dillon down the right side, line and tossed a strike to the 105-yard junior. On the corner the Hurricane, which rolled out and flipped to Dillon, who bubbled the ball before finally hanging onto it.

The statistics belonged to Allen. Liberty had a 128-102 edge in rushing, but the Canaries' 404 yards in the air compared to the Hurricane's 277 yards in the air. The Hurricanes played key receivers. In addition, they played a strong quarterback, who completed 12 of 21 for the night, hit an aerial in the club's first drive of the third period, clinching his rookie in a 10-0 victory.
