

JOHN SWARTZ

Swartz picks Penn State

It's Penn State for John Swartz.

Swartz, a standout in football and basketball at Langhorne's Neshaminy High School the past two years, has decided to continue his athletic and academic education at University Park.

The 6-1, 170-pound senior started at quarterback for Neshaminy's football team his junior and senior years and guided the Redskins to a fine 16-5-1 record.

This past winter, after turning his talents to the basketball court, Swartz led Section One of the Lower Bucks County League in scoring, the first Neshaminy player ever to do so, and was named to the Courier Times' All-Area basketball team.

He was also named as an honorable mention selection to United Press International's All-State basketball team.

Swartz, a member of the National Honor Society, has indicated he'll concentrate on basketball at Penn State under head coach John Bach and his assistant, Casper Voithoefer.
