

Practice for the Bucks County Cancer Crusades All-Star Football Game, to be played June 14 at Neshaminy High School. Langhorne, begins Thursday evening. The north squad, coached by Council Rock's Walt Snyder, will practice at Central Bucks East High School, Buckingham. The squad includes former Pennridge grid stars, Tom Mann, Kevin Fluck, Bob Roberts and Will Schmolk. The south team, coached by Fred Conger of Morrisville, will practice at Bishop Egan High School. Tonight both teams will be together at the All-Star banquet (Chuck Bednarik former Eagles great as guest speaker) at the shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa. This will be the third game of the series with the North having one win and the South one victory. Other Bux-Mont League players include Quakertown's Joe Myers, Jon Harwick, Bill Moyer, Dave Hippensteel, and Dick Saborsky; Central Bucks West's Bill Bradley, Joe Vineis, Jeff Gallen, Doug Samsel and Mike Emmett; Central Bucks East's Larry Skomp, and Dennis Burchfield. Archbishop Wood has seven players on the squad and Council Rock ranks second with six. Other teams represented are William Tennent and Plaisades.
