

Big 33 Football Game At Hershey on Saturday

Sixty-six of the state's finest schoolboy football players of last fall are in training camp at two mid-state sites readying for the 14th annual Pennsylvania Big 33 Classic.

The game, which pits the East against the West, will be held Saturday at Hershey Stadium with another sellout crowd of some 20,000 expected.

The West squad is training at Gettysburg College. Head coach is Art Bernardi, of Butler. East head coach Tom Carroll, of Chambersburg, has the club working out at Hershey. Both teams of 33 players each plan double drills until Friday, the eve of the game.

The West, which leads the series, 3-2, has lost two of its last three starts against the East. Last summer, the East hung a 15-0 shutout on the favored West to the shock of the crowd.

Both squads are stacked with outstanding players, including several topnotch quarterbacks. The West has a pair of highly touted signal callers in Chuck Fiorante, New Castle, and Tommy Clements, Pittsburgh Canevin. For the East there are Eric Scott, Ridley, who had 175 college offers, Paul Shellhammer, Pottsville, and Tom Shuman, Pottstown.

No less than a half-dozen high school All-Americans are in the game. One of the state's two most noted linemen are East end, Mike Hartenstine, Bethlehem Liberty, and Mike Bartoszek, Erie McDowell terminal.

Charlie Liott of HHS is on the East squad.

Al Clark, Big 33 president, advised fans not to wait until the last minute to obtain reserved seats. "They'll be disappointed if they do," he said. "with the East having a chance to square the series, this game figures to be a dandy."

Tickets may be secured by sending check or money order made payable to Big 33, Inc., Hershey Sports Arena, Hershey, Pa. 17033. Reserved seats are $5, $4, $3 and $2. Add 25 cents for mailing and handling charges.
