

5 Locals On All-Star Grid Team

Plymouth - Whitemarsh guard-linebacker Carmen Frangiosa led a contingent of five Philadelphia-area high school football players named Thursday to the 1973 Associated Press all-state team.

Frangiosa was the only player named to both the offensive and defensive first teams. Joining the 5-11, 218-pound P-W standout were Germantown tackle Richard Musgrove, Delhaas guard Brian Beswick, Abington defensive end Joff Gearhart, and Wissahickon deep back Bill Hill.

Three area players were named to each of the offensive and defensive second units. Frangiosa's teammate, Steve Nauta, a center, joined Pennsbury guard Dave Oppenheimer and Norristown running back Richard Fisher on the offensive team. Defensive honors went to North Catholic's Will Quick, Pennsbury's Warren Knop, and Mastbaum linebacker Richie Hallacker.
