Allen Loses To Neshaminy

Unbeaten Neshaminy High spotted visiting William Allen High of Allentown a 6-0 first quarter lead before bouncing back to gain a 26-6 victory in a Big Seven Conference game played Friday night at Langhorne. It was the fourth straight win for the Redskins, second in league play.

Quarterback John Swartz, son of the Neshaminy coach, sparked the Redskins as he completed scoring passes of five yards to Bill Buckley and 21 yards to Andy Koch. Swartz also scored on a one-yard "sneak" with Barton Smith's three-yard run accounting for the fourth Redskin six-pointer. Allen's lone TD came on a nine-yard run by Roy Derr.
