

Loughery leads list of area all-staters

La Salle's Drew Loughery, who threw for 25 touchdowns this fall, is the first-team quarterback on the Associated Press' Class AAAA all-state football team released yesterday.

Loughery passed for 2,628 yards, 19 yards short of the record for Philadelphia city leagues set by his coach, Brett Gordon.

Other first-team selections on offense included Northeast wide receiver Je'Ron Stokes, St. Joseph's Prep lineman Mark Arcidiacono, Washington's Sharif Floyd, North Penn's Ronnie Atkins, and Downingtown West's Bret Gillespie.

On defense, Neshaminy lineman Dan Shirey and Frankford's Kalif Walker were first-team picks.
