

Decker named all-state in football

Dennis Decker of Ridley, one of the top passers in Pennsylvania high school football history, leads The Associated Press big school all-state football team for 1990, which was announced yesterday.

Players from Class AAAA and AAA were eligible for the team, which was selected in statewide voting by sportswriters and sportscasters.

Ridley, the state Class AAAA runner-up, was represented by Decker and top receiver Devon Preston on the first team.

Decker broke the state's 18-year-old single-season passing record by throwing for 2,738 yards, with 31 touchdowns and just six interceptions. Decker's most important statistic, according to Ridley coach Joe McNicholas, the AP's big school coach of the year, was his 22-2 record as a starter over the last two years.

Preston had 69 receptions for 1,197 yards and 14 touchdowns this season.

Other players from Southeastern Pennsylvania on the first team are linemen Keith Conlin of La Salle, Ray Kane of Archbishop Carroll, Mark Zataveski of Bishop McDevitt, Chris Kennedy of Downingtown and Jason Owens of Council Rock; line-backer Shannon Stevens of Glen Mills, and defensive backs Shawn Wooden of Abington and Tony Miller of Coatesville.
