

Area Shutout In Big 33 Selections

HARRISBURG (UPI) — Eighteen members of the United Press International All-State Scholastic football teams were among those named to the 15th annual Pennsylvania Big 33 squads announced during the weekend.

The all - senior schoolboy squads, representing teams from the eastern and western sections of the state, will clash Aug. 7 in the annual mid-summer classic at the Hershey Stadium.

Al Clark, executive sports editor of the Harrisburg Patriot-News and Big 33 president, noted that the squads' selections were made by a 130-man panel of writers and high school coaches. Their opinion of player ratings was supplemented by college coaching staffs who garnered information from personal scout reports and game films.
