

LANGHORNE WINS, NEWTOWN CHECKED

Hard Won Victory of 13—7 Evens
Sason's Series.

LONG RUN BY TOWNSEND

It was a case of making the best of the breaks, which the gods tossed about on Langhorne Field, that enabled Langhorne to defeat Newtown in a hard fought stirring battle. Starting the game with a rush, Newtown scored in the early minutes of the game, by means of a sizzling 30-yard pass, heaved by "Red" White to Derry who trotted unmolested across the goal line.

"Society" Barone, just warmed up a few minutes of play, skirted right end for the extra point, and there was Newtown out in the lead 7 to 0, but Langhorne was destined to receive the better cards in the next deal.

As the second quarter swung into play, White slung a wide forward right into the hands, of Langhorne's quarter; Townsend, who was downed on Newtown's 6 yard line, from where Carter charged his way over for a touchdown, and used the same method a few minutes latter to gain the extra point.

At half time the score stood 7—7 in most anyone's favor. Although Newtown was outplaying the enemy, Langhorne was making and getting the breaks.

In the third session Langhorne started a smashing drive that carried the ball to its opponent's 1-inch mark. There given 3 trys they were unable to reach that cherished goal, through a line that was holding like concrete re-inforced with steel. Both elevens must have been seeing red to be fighting as though mad, but there comes a time when one or the other must give in.

Newtown stepped out of danger by a very poor punt that only served to endanger it again. For in a couple of plays Langhorne had a first down and a few yards to a touchdown. Twice they hit the line and twice that line held. Time was called by Langhorne to give the gasping teams a chance to regain some strength, and the gasping crowd to get some wind to yell some more. Then the lines came together as Carter, with flying dive, made the deciding touchdown.

That lost drive of Langhorne's spurred Newtown to throw caution to the wind and throw forward passes that proved a high mark of the game's closing minutes. It was all to no avail, for upon getting into scoring position, Newtown was unable to dig up a winning punch.

As a matter of statistics, the teams were quite evenly matched. Each had 7 first downs and 7 attempted passes out of which they completed 4 and had

1 intercepted. But as to the matter of yardage gained Newtown's rushing and aerial attack was superior.
