Neshaminy Tops Bensalem by 33-7

Neshaminy High, which lost its opening game, a non-league contest, to Ambler, registered its ninth consecutive victory since by beating Bensalem, 33-7, to win the Lower Bucks County Conference football title yesterday at Langhorne.

Bensalem, which closed with a 4-6 record, scored first, in the opening period, when Al Parker went over from the three following a fumble recovery by Dick Scott on Neshaminy's 13.

Neshaminy, which ended its circuit season with a 5-0 record, then scored five touchdowns. Lou Maurer passed for three touchdowns, twice to Al Hofmann (for 15 and 35 yards) and to Gary Latham for 17.
