

Neshaminy-Langhorne romps

Bensalem High, which had won three non-league games, ran into a hard-charging Neshaminy-Langhorne offense yesterday and dropped a 42-14 decision in a Lower Bucks County League opener.

Tom Calkins ignited N-L's first-half 21 point explosion with a one-yard touchdown plunge in the first quarter.

After Bensalem's Pat McGlocklin ran 45 yards for a third-period score, Calkins sealed the decision by crossing over from the four-yard line.

Dave Baun kicked conversions for the winners.

Council Rock 14, Woodrow Wilson 7 — Bill Campbell scored both touchdowns, one on an 82-yard kickoff return, to spark the Indians on their home field.

After Wilson took the lead 11 minutes after the start of the game on a 78-yard run by Greg Edwards, Campbell took the ensuing kickoff and followed a wedge, then broke for the touchdown.

In the second quarter, Lee Martucci's 43-yard run after intercepting a pass set up the winning score.

George School wins

George School opened its Penn Jersey League season with a 21-14 win over visiting Germantown Friends yesterday.

Senior quarterback Wes Seabrook scored two touchdowns, kicked an extra point, and passed for another conversion for the Cougars.

It was the first win for ~~Cougars~~ coach Steve Radanovic.
