

Langhorne players headed for college

Twenty-four seniors who played football at Neshaminy Langhorne High School this past year will be attending college in the fall.

They are: Bill Adrian (Mansfield State College), Greg Bartle (Bucks County Community College), Dave Baun (Penn State), Joe Bebey (Delaware), Chris Bezick (U.S. Military Academy Prep), Tom Calkins (New Hampshire), Chris Cechak (U.S. Naval Academy), Ken Cloak (BCCC), Dave Dunlap (BCCC), Mike Ferri (Rutgers), Ted Grupp (Bloomsburg State College), Craig Hill (Bloomsburg), Matt Horton (New Mexico-Highlands), Ken Kuzma (BCCC), Kevin Lane (Trenton State), Mark Lewandowski (Bloomsburg), Tony Manzo (Hartford Junior College), Alec Puketza (Lebanon Valley), Tim Riggs (Army), Jim Riley (West Chester State), Gary Romett (Mansfield State), Dennis Shepherd (Trenton State), Blake Spirko (U.S. Marines) and Steve Tibbles (Maine)