

TO CONSIDER PLANS FOR PENNSBURY SCHOOL

Experts to Confer at Fallsington on Monday to Review Plans

TO MEET AT 4 O'CLOCK

The preliminary plans for the new Pennsbury high school will be reviewed by educational experts, county board, and Bucks county school administrators at Pennsbury senior high school, at Fallsington, on November 28th.

The educational experts at the Pennsbury meeting will be: Dr. Paul Loser, superintendent, Trenton schools; Dr. Thomas E. Robinson, superintendent of Mercer county schools, New Jersey; Dr. Ablett H. Flury, executive assistant to Commissioner of Department of Education, Trenton, N. J.; Dr. Ross Neagley, Temple University, Philadelphia; Dr. William E. Arnold, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; Mr. Allen C. Harman, assistant county superintendent of Montgomery county schools; Dr. Edwin Cruttenden, chief, secondary education, Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg; Dr. F. R. Morey, supervising principal of Swarthmore schools, Swarthmore; Mr. H. Frank Hare, superintendent, Phoenixville schools, Phoenixville.

The Pennsbury conference will begin at four p. m., with Regional Superintendent Medill Bair and A. E. Michlewright, architect, from Trenton, N. J.

Regional Superintendent Norman Kratz of the Council Rock area will preside at the afternoon session.