MORRISVILLE WINS OVER LANGHORNE

MORRISVILLE, Nov. 8—Morrisville High continued to roll up large scores on its opponents by swamping the Langhorne Redskins, 32-0, Saturday afternoon, on the Robert Morris field.

It was the sixth straight win for the Bulldogs, who have been unscored on in the last six games, and have registered 122 points. It was their second Lower Bucks County League triumph, they having won over Bensalem last week.

The Bulldogs will play Trenton Catholic next Saturday afternoon on Dunn field. Bristol defeated Trenton Catholic, 6-0, in the season's opener.
