

LANGHORNE LOSES TO MT. HOLLY ELEVEN

By Jack Gill

Big Bob Huchison, powerful plunging left halfback of Coach Doug Fischer's Mt. Holly High School eleven, personally accounted for three touchdowns against Langhorne at Mt. Holly Saturday afternoon as the home town clan pounded the weak Lower Bucks squad into a 40 to 6 defeat.

Tallying on a reverse around left end from the sixteen yard line in the opening minutes, from the 42 yard line on a cutback through tackle in the second quarter and on a 33 yard toss from Art Crawshaw in the third canto, he was the whole show. Langhorne's only tally came during the final stages of the fray when Warren Gotwal tossed a sharp aerial to substitute LeRoy Slater.

Langhorne has not scored a major football victory since Thanksgiving Day 1938, when they handed Newtown a 6 to 0 defeat. Last week they tied Lower Moreland, 6-6. During Saturday's fray Sodano, a guard, suffered a dislocated shoulder.
